Carolina 1981

Media Information

CREDENTIALS: Working press credentials for Carolina home games can be obtained by contacting Rick Brewer in the Sports Information Office. Brewer's mailing address is P.O. Box 2126, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514.

Requests are screened with care to insure a working pressbox. Children, spouses and pets are not allowed in compliance with the working code of the Football Writers Association of America.

FILING COPY: The Department of Athletics furnishes a number of telephones for writers to use in moving their copy from the pressbox. Anyone desiring a private phone should contact Southern Bell in Chapel Hill.

The Carolina Sports Information Office has one telecopier which will be available for sending copy. An operator's fee of $10 per game will be charged for its use. This fee will cover the cost of a student assistant staying late to send copy. It is strongly suggested, however, that if at all possible, newsmen covering games in Kenan Stadium bring their own telecopiers. This will allow all copy to be moved more quickly and will alleviate any deadline problems.

PRESSBOX SERVICES: Programs, flip cards and statistics will be provided before each game. A play-by-play will be distributed at the conclusion of each quarter. Halftime statistics will also be available. Complete team and individual statistics, a scoring summary and coaches' quotes will be provided after the game.

Lunch will be served on the third level of the pressbox before each game and at halftime. Soft drinks and coffee are available on the second level (writers' area) throughout the game.

SIDELINE POLICY: Photographers will not be allowed on the sidelines without an armband. Armbands can be picked up in the pressbox prior to the game. Each photographer must pick up his or her own armband from Monty Woods of the Sports Information Office.

INTERVIEWS: Each Tuesday during the football season Dick Crum will be available to the media at a press luncheon. Television and radio tapes can be done at 11:30 a.m. with the luncheon starting at noon in Kenan Fieldhouse.

Player interviews can be arranged by contacting the Sports Information Office. Generally, interviews will be set up in Kenan Fieldhouse. However, Carolina's actual locker room is closed to the press during the season except on Saturdays following games. Player interviews are not allowed on Fridays preceding games.

RADIO NETWORK AND TV SHOW: Over 60 stations in three states will once again carry the Tar Heel Football Network. The network is operated by Village Companies of Chapel Hill with Jim Heavner as the producer. Woody Durham, sports director at WPTF-TV, handles the play-by-play with Heavner adding color commentary.

The Carolina Football Show will be televised across the state of North Carolina each Sunday. Durham serves as emcee for this program which features Crum and highlights of the previous game.

1981 Prospectus

If North Carolina can rebuild its defensive front and get strong performances from a promising offense, the Tar Heels should again be a contender for the Atlantic Coast Conference football championship.

Coach Dick Crum's team posted an 11-1 record last year, including a 16-7 victory over Texas in the Bluebonnet Bowl. Carolina won the ACC title and finished ninth and tenth in the final wire service polls.

However, many of the key performers on that team have been lost to graduation. The defense was especially hard hit with losses. Gone are outside linebacker Lawrence Taylor, tackles Donnell Thompson and Harry Stanback, free safety Steve Streater, nose guard Paul Davis and cornerback Tyress Bratton.

Taylor was a consensus All-America, the ACC Player of the Year and the second player chosen in the NFL draft last spring. Thompson, also a first-round NFL selection, and Streater were All-ACC selections. Any time Carolina got in trouble, one of those three seemed to make a big play. They were major reasons the Tar Heels finished eighth nationally in scoring defense and 11th in total defense.

Offensively, only four starters are missing—guard Ron Wooten, center Rick Donnalley, fullback Billy Johnson and tailback Amos Lawerence. All, however, will be difficult to replace.

Wooten was a first-team selection on three All-America squads and Donnalley was a second-team choice. Johnson's blocking was a key factor in Lawrence and Kelvin Bryant each rushing for 1,000 yards. Lawrence finished his Carolina career with four 1,000-yard rushing seasons and 4,391 yards, a school record and the ninth-highest figure in collegiate history.

Still, Carolina has the potential for an outstanding offense. Seven starters are back from a unit which led the ACC in total offense, rushing offense and scoring last year.

Heading the list of returning players on offense are tailback Kelvin Bryant and quarterback Rod Elkins. Both have the ability to be among the top players in the country at their positions.

Bryant, a 6-2, 195-pound speedster from Tarboro, N.C., had a brilliant sophomore season. Alternating with Lawrence at tailback in Carolina's I-formation, he ran for 1,039 yards and averaged 5.9 yards per carry. No returning player in the nation had more yardage and a better yards-per-carry average than Bryant. Kelvin finished second in the ACC in all-purpose running and third in rushing and scoring (12 touchdowns).

With 9.2 speed in the 100, Bryant gives Carolina one of the most dangerous breakaway threats in college football. In addition, he is a tough inside runner and a great receiver.

Elkins, a 6-1, 204-pound junior from Greensboro, N.C., started every game as a sophomore last year after playing on the junior varsity as a freshman. His poise and leadership were key factors in Carolina's 11-1 season.

With Lawrence and Bryant in the backfield, the Tar Heels did not have to throw a great deal last season. However, when Elkins did pass, he was effective. He completed 81 of 160 passes for 1,002 yards and 12 touchdowns, tying for the ACC passing lead. His best asset may be an ability to turn a busted play into a big gainer.

"Rod has an excellent arm," says Crum. "Our passing game was fairly simple early last year because of his inexperience. However, we added some things as the season progressed and put in some more things in the spring. I expect him to be an even better quarterback this fall."

The major concerns in the backfield during spring practice were finding a replacement for Johnson and developing backups for Bryant and Elkins. Alan Burrus, a 5-11, 210-pound junior from Shelby, N.C., won the fullback job. He was slated to be the top reserve at that spot last fall, but missed the entire season with a badly pulled hamstring. Although he doesn't have Johnson's size, Burrus does have good blocking techniques and is a gifted runner.

Tyrone Anthony, a 6-1, 200-pound sophomore from Winston-Salem, N.C., emerged in the spring as the most likely number two tailback. He saw only limited action with the varsity as a freshman. Scott Stankavage, the backup quarterback last year, finished the spring in that same role. He is a 6-1, 189-pound sophomore from Doylestown, Pa.

Others in the backfield picture are tailback Bobby Ratliff and fullbacks Danny Bunn, Bob McKinley and James Jones.

Despite the loss of Wooten and Donnalley, the offensive line again has good possibilities. Returning starters there are tackle David Drechsler, a 6-4, 250-pound junior from Cleveland, N.C.; guard Ron Spruill, a 6-2, 250-pound junior from Hampton, Va.; and tackle Mike Marr, a 6-4, 255-pound senior from Burlington, N.C.

Unfortunately, Marr suffered a knee injury in spring practice and had to undergo surgery. If he's healthy this fall he should be one of the premier linemen in the ACC. His presence would allow Crum to shift Drechsler to Wooten's old guard spot. Brian Blados would then move in at tackle with Brian Johnston starting at center.

If Marr cannot play, Drechsler would remain at tackle and Steve McGrew would probably move into a starting role at guard.

Regardless of where he plays, Drechsler will rate as a top all-star candidate. He is a versatile performer who can play any of the interior blocking positions. He started the last 10 games of the 1980 season and did an outstanding job. Crum rates him as one of the best linemen in America.

Spruill is another potential all-star. He started every game at right guard last season and teamed with Wooten and Donnalley to give Carolina excellent play in the middle of the line.

Blados is a 6-6, 290-pound sophomore from Arlington, Va. who just needs experience to be a solid player. The 6-4, 250-pound Johnston missed all of his freshman season last year because of a hernia. A native of Highland, Md., Johnston has good athletic ability and shows great promise. McGrew, a 6-2, 245-pound junior from Cincinnati, Ohio, had a good spring after playing with the second unit last year.

The number two offensive line will come from a group that includes center Bill Lippincott; guards Clay Hassard and Kevin Wilson; and tackles Steve Lancaster, Greg Crawford, Bill Crawford, Mark Uptegraff and Mel Trimble.

Shelton Robinson, a superior blocker, returns for his third year as the starting tight end. The 6-1, 233-pound senior from Goldsboro, N.C. did not catch a pass last year, but still graded out every game. The loss of Mike Chatham to graduation should make Robinson a more prominent aerial target this fall. Chatham was Carolina's leading receiver for the past two seasons while playing behind Robinson.

Returning starters at wide receiver are flanker Victor Harrison and split end Jon Richardson. Harrison made great progress down the stretch last fall and finished with 16 catches, all in the last nine games. Richardson lacks outstanding speed, but makes up for that with great hands. He had 15 catches in 1980. Another important player at wide receiver could be sophomore Mark Smith. He was very impressive in the spring drills and has the speed to give Carolina a deep threat.

With Bryant and Elkins in the lineup, the offense certainly has explosive scoring potential. However, the quickness with which the young defense develops will probably be the determining factor in how good a team Carolina is.

"Championships are won on defense," says Crum. "If you've got a good football team, you've got a strong defense. I think we have some talented people on defense, but we simply don't have much experience.

"Generally, I was pleased with the progess our young kids made in the spring. We made some errors, but they were basically mistakes of inexperience. If our players continue to improve, we can be a pretty good defensive team. But, we're going to have to take things slowly and use a lot of patience."

The strength of the defensive unit should be at linebacker where Darrell Nicholson and Lee Shaffer are returning starters. Nicholson is one of the best defenders in college football. The 6-2, 234-pound senior from Winston-Salem, N.C. was Carolina's leading tackler last fall and the top vote-getter among linebackers on the All-ACC team. He has an uncanny ability to always be around the football.

Kelvin Bryant follows blocking against Virginia

Shaffer, a 6-1, 213-pound senior from Durham, N.C., did a good job last year in his first season at this position. The team's second-leading tackler last fall, he has good mobility and athletic ability.

The top reserves are also back at this spot—Chris Ward and Kris Keeney. Ward was particularly impressive in the spring as was sophomore Bill Sheppard, who was moved from outside linebacker.

Carolina's biggest problem on defense is the front five where only one starter returns from a year ago. That starter, outside linebacker Calvin Daniels, should be one of the best players in the ACC. Daniels, a 6-3, 237-pound senior from Goldsboro, N.C., had an outstanding junior season which included 10 tackles for losses. However, his play was generally overshadowed by that of Taylor.

Best bet to move into Taylor's old job is Mike Wilcher, a 6-3, 230-pound junior from Washington, D.C. Depth here will be provided by senior Jeff Pierce and sophomores Butch Griffin and Jeff Blaylock.

Carolina has lost 10 years of experience at tackle with the graduation of Thompson, Stanback and top reserve John Brugos and will be replacing it with none. Playing time will be divided among Jack Parry, a 6-1, 241-pound junior from Mechanicsburg, Pa.; William Fuller, a 6-3, 240-pound sophomore from Chesapeake, Va.; Joe Conwell, a 6-5, 250-pound junior from Bala Cynwyd, Pa.; Wendelle Battle, a 6-4, 270-pound sophomore from Washington, D.C.; and Bill Lawson, a 6-6, 257-pound sophomore from Clifton, Va.

Of that group, only Parry has lettered. He was the backup nose guard last fall. He and Fuller, who had an outstanding spring, enter the fall as starters. Thus, Carolina will certainly not have the size it had at this position last year in the 257-pound Thompson and the 262-pound Stanback.

Sophomore Steve Fortson of Dayton, Ohio is expected to replace Davis at nose guard. He lacks experience, but has the ability to be a solid player at this spot.

Two positions are set in the secondary with the return of strong safety Bill Jackson, a 6-1, 202-pound senior from Winston-Salem, N.C., and cornerback Greg Poole, a 6-1, 199-pound junior from China Grove, N.C. Both played well last fall and should be among the top defensive backs in the ACC.

Darryl Lucas, a 5-10, 175-pound sophomore from Selma, N.C., had an outstanding spring and will start at the other cornerback. Walter Black, a 5-10, 168-pound sophomore from Kernersville, N.C., ended the spring as the starting free safety. Other possibilities in the secondary are sophomore cornerback Stanley Pugh and junior free safety Chuck Sharpe. Sharpe, who missed the 1980 season with a knee injury, was switched to defense after playing quarterback for two years. He made good progress in the spring although he was not allowed to take part in contact work.

A big problem for Crum is the kicking game. Thanks in large part to Streater's 43.4 average, Carolina was third nationally in net punting last year. It will be difficult to find anyone who can match Streater's distance and hang time. Sharpe and Jeff Hayes are the top candidates. Hayes will again handle all placements.

Just how good can the Tar Heels be?

A great deal will depend on how quickly the young defense matures. If the offensive unit gets off to a good start next fall and gives the defense a chance to develop, Carolina could again be a factor in the ACC race and on the national level.

Goal Line Analysis

Offense

Receivers

All three starters at these spots return from last season. However, depth could be a problem at all three positions. The returning starters are tight end Shelton Robinson and wide receivers Victor Harrison and Jon Richardson. All are solid performers Robinson, in fact, could be the premier tight end in the Atlantic Coast Conference. He is a tremendous blocker. He is such a superb blocker that he graded out in every game last year even though he did not catch a pass. He figures to be a more prominent part of the Carolina passing game this year with the graduation of his backup, Mike Chatham, the Tar Heels' leading receiver for the last two seasons. Harrison made great improvement during the 1980 season and then played well in the spring. He has good speed, fine hands and excellent running ability once he catches the football. Richardson doesn't have great speed, but makes up for that by running excellent routes and having good hands. Another key player at this position could be sophomore Mark Smith. He has the speed to give Carolina a deep threat. He lacks experience, but was impressive in the spring drills. In fact, he moved ahead of Richardson on the depth chart while Jon was sidelined with an injury. The Tar Heels shuttle their receivers quite a bit, so a couple of more wide-outs must develop. Sophomore Clifford Powell ended the spring behind Robinson at tight end, but his status for the fall is unknown because of off-season surgery. Other possibilities there are Doug Sickels, Keith Cowell and Mark Transou. There is also a chance freshmen could get into the picture at tight end and wide receiver.

Interior Line

Despite the loss of All-America guard Ron Wooten and second-team All-America center Rick Donnalley, the offensive line could again be a very good one. Heading the list of returning players here is David Drechsler, a starter at left tackle last year who will move into Wooten's old left guard spot this fall. He should be one of the top blockers in college football. Carolina is also well set at the other guard with the return of Ron Spruill. He had a fine sophomore season last year and should be among the best players in the ACC. Right tackle Mike Marr is the other returning starter. He played very well down the stretch a year ago, but missed most of the spring because of a knee injury. Doctors believe he will be ready to play this fall. Sophomore Brian Blados will move into the left tackle slot with Brian Johnston taking over at center. Blados was a reserve last year, while Johnston missed the entire season with a hernia. Depth in the line is a big concern. Only Steve McGrew of the number two unit has varsity experience. Other backups here will be Steve Lancaster, Bill Lippincott, Clay Hassard, Greg Crawford, Mel Trimble, Kevin Wilson, Mark Uptegraff and Bill Crawford.

The Backfield

Carolina has the potential for one of the most explosive backfields in college football. Kelvin Bryant gives the Tar Heels one of the nation's premier runners at tailback and Rod Elkins should be a top all-star candidate at quarterback. Bryant ran for 1,039 yards last year while alternating at tailback with Amos Lawrence. Now with Lawrence gone after four standout seasons, the tailback spot is all his. Bryant has the speed and size to be a game-breaker. Considering his pass-catching ability and blocking skills, it is no wonder the Tar Heel coaches consider him the most complete back in the country. Elkins had an outstanding sophomore season last year, guiding Carolina to an 11-1 record and tying for the ACC passing lead. He should be even better this year. He's capable of being one of the best passers ever to play in the ACC. Alan Burrus, out last year with a badly pulled hamstring, will take over Billy Johnson's fullback slot. He doesn't have Johnson's size, but is a fine runner and a solid blocker. The question marks about the backfield are the backups. Second-teammers at the end of the spring were Scott Stankavage at quarterback, Tyrone Anthony at tailback and walk-on James Jones at fullback. All lack experience. Other possibilities include Bobby Ratliff, Danny Bunn, Bob McKinley and some incoming freshmen.

Defense

The Line

This was one of the strong points of last year's 11-1 team. Now, with only one starter returning, it ranks as one of the biggest question marks. Gone are outside linebacker Lawrence Taylor, tackles Donnell Thompson and Harry Stanback and nose guard Paul Davis. Taylor and Thompson were first-round selections in the NFL draft, Stanback was a sixth-round choice and Davis signed as a free agent. That's the kind of talent Carolina is missing. The lone returning starter, outside linebacker Calvin Daniels, should be one of the top players in the country at his position. He is a disciplined player with great athletic ability. Best bet to start at the opposite flank is Mike Wilcher, Taylor's backup last fall. He has good ability, but lacks experience. Jack Parry, who split time with Davis at nose guard last fall, has moved to tackle. He's scheduled to start there along with sophomore William Fuller. Another sophomore, Steve Fortson, will move in at nose guard. Fuller and Fortson were particularly impresssive in the spring. Like Wilcher, they have good talent, but just lack game experience. Depth at the interior spots must come from Joe Conwell, Wendelle Battle, Bill Lawson, Donald Lucas, Ronnie Snipes and Lee Ickes. Reserve help at outside linebacker will come from Jeff Pierce, Butch Griffin, Jeff Blaylock, Aaron Jackson, Danny Barlow and T.J. Murray. Of that group, Pierce has the most experience.

Linebackers

One of the strengths of the Carolina team should be its linebacking corp. Darrell Nicholson and Lee Shaffer, both starters last fall, are back for their senior seasons. Nicholson, an All-ACC selection in 1980, is one of the premier defenders in college football. He is heading into his fourth year as a starter and has gotten better and better each season. His best asset may simply be a nose for the football. He's always around it and is an excellent hitter. Last season was Shaffer's first at this spot, but he played well. He doesn't always look great, but he gets the job done. Like Nicholson, he always seems to be near the ball. Also returning are the top reseves from last fall, Chris Ward and Kris Keeney. They supply good depth and are also fine specialty team players. Ward probably had the best spring of any of the linebackers. Another excellent prospect here is Bill Sheppard. He was moved from outside linebacker in the spring and made excellent strides at this position. Dwight Parrish, Tommy Mullmann, Todd Blanton, Jim Conis, Jeff Milligan and Arnold Wyrick round out the players at this spot.

The Secondary

Missing from the defensive backfield are Steve Streater and Tyress Bratton. Streater ranks as one of the finest defensive backs in school history. He had 11 interceptions in his career, the fourth highest total ever at Carolina. He did a super job at free safety last year, earning All-ACC honors. Bratton was a two-year starter at cornerback. Returning starters are strong safety Bill Jackson and cornerback Greg Poole. Jackson looms as an All-ACC candidate in his senior season. He didn't intercept a pass last year, but is a solid all-around player. He was in on 75 tackles last year, the most of anyone in the secondary. Poole had a fine sophomore season although he was only moved from strong safety to cornerback just a week before the season opener. Top newcomers in the secondary appear to be Darryl Lucas and Walter Black. Both were special team players last year. Lucas had an outstanding spring and is a bright prospect at cornerback. Black ended the spring as the starting free safety, but should be pushed for that job this fall by Chuck Sharpe. Sharpe, moved to the defense from quarterback, missed contact work in the spring while rehabilitating a knee. He is a good athlete who could be a factor here. Stanley Pugh, Willie Harris, Todd Kelly, Mark Oglesby, Steve Moss, Alex Mebane, Chuck Monroe and Russ Allred supply backup help. Incoming freshmen could also be of assistance here.

Numerical Roster

(This roster includes all varsity and freshman players. There are some duplicate numbers simply because Carolina has more players than numbers. However, in all cases of duplicates, one player plays offense and the other defense. Positions for the freshmen will be decided when they arrive on campus in August.)

What Coach Says About:

KELVIN BRYANT

"He is a premier tailback. He did a great job for us last year alternating with Amos (Lawrence). Now he'll have the opportunity this year to be singled out more. I expect him to have a very good year."

DAVID DRECHSLER

"He's a first-rate player. Although he's a junior in eligibility, this is his fourth year here and I think he's as mature as any senior we've had. We've had some outstanding offensive linemen here and he ranks right up there with the best of them."

ROD ELKINS

"He made great improvement from the spring of 1980 to last spring. A lot of that improvement was strictly because of confidence. He didn't press last spring; he was more relaxed. He made plays he wouldn't have made a year ago. He's a great young passer. In the spring game he hit receivers with the ball 20 of 21 times. His best asset, however, may be an amazing ability to turn busted plays into gainers."

THE OFFENSE

"If we don't have injuries, we can be pretty good offensively. We have a good front line, but a lot of young, inexperienced people in backup roles. An important factor in our season last year was having Drechsler who could play anywhere in the offensive line we needed him. We need to develop a versatile reserve like that again."

DARRELL NICHOLSON

"He is a total football player. He knows what's going on at all times and from all aspects. He's certainly an excellent hitter. He's had three very good years for us, but we're counting on his senior season to be his best of all."

CALVIN DANIELS

"The thing that has helped him a lot is people tried to run away from Lawrence Taylor last year. They ran at him and gave him the experience he needed. He has a lot of tools. As he continues to mature, he'll be one of the outstanding players in the league."

THE DEFENSE

"The strength of our defense should be our linebackers. We have three very good ones in Nicholson, Daniels and Shaffer. We've lost a lot of people up front, but I think we still have some talent there. Jack Parry has some experience. William Fuller, Steve Fortson, Wendelle Battle and Joe Conwell are young, but they can be good players. We have some experience in the secondary in Billy Jackson and Greg Poole. We need Walter Black or Chuck Sharpe to come through at free safety. Because of our youth, we're going to have to be patient with our defense. But, I think we have the potential for a pretty good unit."

SPRING PRACTICE

"It was a good teaching time which is what it should be. We had a little more experience offensively, so we put more pressure on the defense, trying to force the kids to mature. I thought they started to respond pretty well near the end of the spring."

CONCERNS ABOUT 1981

"My concerns are staying healthy, the defense coming along and maturing and making sure we have a good, solid kicking game."

LAST YEAR'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS

"I think that was probably an indication of what a good attitude, togetherness and hard work will do for you. If we hadn't had those things, we would not have been 11-1. That's a good example for our young people coming along."

The Tar Heels

JESSE ADAMS
Tailback
6-0, 197, Junior
Durham, N.C.

A walk-on who has been a junior varsity player for the last two seasons... Gained 58 yards against the Duke jayvees as a freshman... Had a 57-yard day against Liberty Baptist last fall... Did a good job in the spring... Showed considerable improvement over last year... Has good speed and strength... Needs to work on his inside running... Had a 19-yard run in the Blue-White game and finished with 27 yards rushing that day... Listed as the number four tailback going into the fall... Ran on state championship 440 and 880-relay teams at Northern Durham High... Majoring in psychology... Born September 26, 1961.

RUSS ALLRED
Defensive Back
5-11, 180, Senior
Asheboro, N.C.

Junior varsity player last season... Hard worker... Biggest drawback is a lack of speed... Worked at strong safety in the spring... Non-scholarship player... An all-conference runningback at Patterson High School... Also wrestled there... A Morehead Scholarship nominee... Majoring in RTVMP... Would like to be a radio or TV broadcaster... Born November 12, 1959

TYRONE ANTHONY
Tailback
6-1, 200, Sophomore
Pfafftown, N.C.

Enters the fall as Carolina's number two tailback...Slowed in the spring by minor, nagging injuries... When he was healthy, he showed flashes of good play... Could be a fine player... Has all the physical tools... Does a good job of running the football... Has good speed and strength... Takes great pride in his receiving... Has excellent hands and runs very good routes... Needs to improve his blocking... Being counted on to develop this fall as a solid backup for Kelvin Bryant... Saw only spot action with the varsity last season... Gained 57 yards on 16 carries... Top single-game performance was 25 yards on four carries against Georgia Tech... Played in all three junior varsity games... Ran for 229 yards on 23 carries against Massanutten Academy and scored four touchdowns... Ran for 63 and 60 yards in the other JV games... Gained 43 yards on seven carries in the Blue-White Game... Came to Carolina after a great prep career at West Forsyth... Suffered a knee injury in his senior year there, but still gained 887 yards in just over six games and was Forsyth County Player of the Year... High School All-America on teams selected by Parade Magazine, Scholastic Coach and the National High School Coaches Association... Played in the Shrine Bowl and the East-West All-Star Game... Won the Winston-Salem-Forsyth County Board of Education Sports Recognition Award as a senior... Born March 3, 1962.

MIKE AUSTELL
Quarterback
6-1, 175, Sophomore
Pfafftown, N.C.

Played on the junior varsity as a walk-on last season... Started to get the feel of being a college football player in the spring... Has potential... Needs a lot of experience... Quarterbacked a conference championship team at North Forsyth... Majoring in economics... Born January 22, 1961.

DANNY BARLOW
Outside Linebacker
6-1, 200, Senior
Moravian Falls, N.C.

Does a great job of contributing wherever needed... Excellent specialty team player... Had four solo tackles and two assists on kick coverage last year... Also played on the specialty teams in his first two years here... Counted on to be a leader in that area this fall... A reserve at outside linebacker... Hard worker... Has a great attitude... Very coachable young man... Steady performer... Just does not have great size... Linebacker and offensive guard at Wilkes Central High School... Played in the Shrine Bowl and the North-South All-Star Game... Outstanding high school wrestler... Enjoys fishing... Majoring in business... Born January 10, 1960.

BROOKS BARWICK
Kicking Specialist
5-10, 170, Sophomore
Clinton, N.C.

Could challenge Jeff Hayes for the place-kicking job this year... Missed all of last season because of injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident... Injured his shoulder and broke a toe on his right (kicking) foot... Had kicked for the junior varsity two years ago... Made field goals of 21, 23 and 30 yards that season... A conventional kicker with good potential... Has the ability to be a major-college kicker... Has consistency and fair range... Good athlete who needs to get bigger and stronger... Non-scholarship player... All-metro as a senior at Episcopal High in Alexandria, Va... All-Conference as both a junior and senior... Enjoys water sports... Majoring in business... Born January 29, 1961.

WENDELLE BATTLE
Defensive Tackle
6-4, 270, Sophomore
Washington, D.C.

Being counted on for backup help in the defensive line... Had a good spring... Ended the off-season drills behind William Fuller at one tackle... Still growing and needs to develop physically... Needs more stamina... Has good quickness, but needs a little better speed... Ran better in the spring than last fall... Running and weight-lifting program was a big help to him... Has good work habits... Wants to do well... Great attitude... Going to be a good player... Just needs experience and should get that this fall... Jayvee player last year... Won two letters in football at Theodore Roosevelt High... Named to the All-Interhigh team as a defensive tackle... All-metro and honorable mention All-America... As a senior his team won the Interhigh West Division and city championships... Won Roosevelt High's outstanding student-athlete award as a senior... Born May 1, 1962.

11

WALT BLACK
Defensive Back
5-10, 168, Sophomore
Kernersville, N.C.

Ended the spring as the starting free safety... Moved there from cornerback where he played as a freshman... Showed great improvement as the spring went on... Exceptional quickness... Good intelligence... Fine student... Very coachable... Needs game experience... Lacks consistency... Playing time should help that... Played on both the varsity and junior varsity last season... Morehead Scholar... Got a congressional appointment to the U.S. Military Academy, but passed it up to come to Carolina... Played running-back, wide receiver and safety at East Forsyth High School... All-City/County defensive back as a junior and senior... Leading rusher in Forsyth County as a senior with 962 yards... Had a single-game high of 274 yards... Team captain... Lettered three times in football, four times in track and twice in basketball... Member of the National Honor Society and president of student government... His dad competed in basketball, baseball and track at Alabama State... Born January 25, 1962.

BRIAN BLADOS
Offensive Tackle
6-6, 290, Sophomore
Arlington, Va.

Set to start at left tackle... Lettered as a backup on the varsity last season... Good athlete... Runs well... Has good speed for a big guy... Certainly has the size and strength to be a solid performer... Gives a good second-effort... Picks up things very well... Good football intelligence... Really matured in the spring... Improved his pass protection... Just needs experience... Great potential... Easy-going young man off the field... Played as a reserve at both left and right tackle last fall... Also was used on kickoff return team... Played defensive tackle and tight end at Washington & Lee High School... All-State as a senior and team captain... Also earned three letters in track and one in wrestling... Set school records in the shot put and discus.

33

TODD BLANTON
Linebacker
6-2, 191, Sophomore
Shelby, N.C.

Saw a great deal of action on the junior varsity last season... Walk-on who could eventually help the varsity... Needs to gain weight and get stronger... Has good instincts... A hard worker... Finished the spring as one of the reserves behind Lee Shaffer... Fullback and linebacker at Shelby High... All-conference performer as a senior there... Majoring in industrial relations.

JEFF BLAYLOCK
Outside Linebacker
6-3, 215, Sophomore
Andrews, N.C.

A pleasant surprise in the spring... Non-scholarship player on the jayvees last fall... Did a good job in the spring work and ended the off-season drills as Calvin Daniels' backup at outside linebacker... Has good quickness and speed... Hard-nosed kid... Doesn't make mistakes... Needs more strength to be solid performer... Definitely in the battle for playing time this fall... Fullback and nose guard at Andrews High... Named co-MVP in his conference... Selected for the North-South All-Star Game... Turned down a couple of scholarships to come to Carolina as a walk-on... Once gained 340 yards rushing in a high school game... Plans to major in business... Born January 1, 1962.

ANDY BRANIN
Defensive Back
5-9, 170, Senior
Cherry Hill, N.J.

Has been in the program for two years as a walk-on... Has played in junior varsity games and contributed on the scout team... Hard worker... Just doesn't have great size... A backup at cornerback... Was a member of the Carolina swimming team as a freshman... Hobby is coin collecting... Good student in business... Tailback at Cherry Hill East... Born October 10, 1958.

KELVIN BRYANT
Tailback
6-2, 195, Junior
Tarboro, N.C.

Capable of being the premier back in college football... Heisman Trophy and All-America candidate... Another in a long line of standout Carolina tailbacks... Has awesome talent... Can do anything on the football field... The complete player... Had a brilliant sophomore season... Although he split time with Amos Lawrence at tailback, Kelvin still gained 1,039 yards rushing... Averaged 94.5 yards per game to finish third in the Atlantic Coast Conference and 27th in the nation in rushing... Scored 12 touchdowns... No Tar Heel sophomore has ever scored more... Was second in the ACC in all-purpose running, third in scoring and ninth in total offense... Accomplished all that despite averaging just 16 carries a game... With Lawrence gone, Bryant will get more carries this fall... Averaged 5.9 yards per rush last season, best in the ACC... In fact, no returning player in the entire nation had more yardage and a better rushing average than Bryant... Although he did not start, Bryant was an easy selection to the All-ACC team... Pre-season All-South selection this year on team picked by Southern Living... A 9.2 sprinter who is a tough inside runner... Carolina's top big-play threat since Charlie Justice... Capable of beating an opponent in so many ways... Tremendous instincts... Coupled with his great, great speed, that makes him a scoring threat from anywhere on the field... His feet never quit moving... Gives 110 percent all the time... Great attitude and work habits... Always does an excellent job in practice... Also a good blocker... Regarded as an excellent receiver... Coachable young man who wants to excel... Rushed for at least 100 yards on seven occasions last fall... Top performance of the year was a 199-yard effort against Duke in the final game... That's the most yardage ever gained by a Carolina sophomore... Had a 44-yard run late in that game to push him over 1,000 yards... He and Lawrence were named co-National Players of the Week after that game by the Associated Press... Bryant also was ACC Player of the Week... With Lawrence running for 1,118 yards, Bryant and Amos became only the 11th teammates to each hit the 1,000 mark in the same season... Had an 81-yard scoring run against Virginia, the sixth longest run from scrimmage in Tar Heel history... Finished that game with 111 yards... Named ABC's Player of the Game after rushing for 138 yards in a 24-19 televised win at Clemson... Had 105 yards against Furman in the season opener, 112 against Georgia Tech, 108 against N.C. State and 107 against East Carolina... Scored three touchdowns against Furman... Turned a short pass into a 58-yard scoring play to beat Texas Tech, 9-3... Averaged 16.2 yards on 12 receptions... Gained 82 yards on 15 carries against Texas in the Bluebonnet Bowl and scored one touchdown... Had his big sophomore season after missing most of his freshman year with a separated shoulder.... Gained 149 yards on 42 carries that fall... Was Carolina's leading rusher (78 yards) in a win over Pittsburgh... Was injured at Army the following week and missed the next six games... Came back to have an outstanding spring in 1980... Won the Blue-White Game that year with a 46-yard touchdown catch as the horn sounded, 23-20... Came to Carolina after a great career at Tarboro High... Scored 24 touchdowns as a senior, running for 1,420 yards... Was the state 100-yard dash champion as a junior and ran a 9.29 as a senior... Won the 220 and long jump as a senior... Played in the Shrine Bowl and the East-West All-Star Game... Also a fine basketball player... Majoring in recreation... Born September 26, 1960.

Fullback
5-11. 222, Junior
Goldsboro, N.C.

Could be a factor at fullback... Has good potential... Injuries have been his biggest problem... Was out most of his freshman season and then suffered a slight knee injury last fall... Also missed practice time in the spring with injuries... Works hard when he's healthy... Has good strength and quickness... Just needs to be more consistent... Lack of consistency can be traced to the fact he's always in and out of action... Had five carries last year for 30 yards in game against Georgia Tech... Had 57 yards in a jayvee game against Liberty Baptist... Football, wrestling and track star at Goldsboro High... Gained over 1,000 yards rushing as a junior, but was injured most of his senior season... State wrestling champ as a junior... Played in the North-South Game... Has a brother, James, who will be a freshman on East Carolina's football team this season... Majoring in studio art... Born October 21, 1960.

ALAN BURRUS
Fullback
5-11, 210, Junior
Shelby, N.C

Here's Carolina's starting fullback... Capable of being a great one... Has all the tools to be a standout at this position in the Tar Heel system... Great quickness and speed... Doesn't have great size, but he's big enough... Possesses fine blocking techniques... Comes off the ball well... Excellent receiver... Good enough runner to be used at tailback in certain situations... Intelligent player with a good attitude... Great student of the game... Coachable and a great competitor... Big things are expected from him this season... Had been scheduled to be the backup fullback last year... However, suffered a badly pulled hamstring in the pre-season... By the time he had recovered, over half the season was gone... Red-shirted because of that... Started six games in 1979 at cornerback... Also played a great deal on the specialty teams that year... Had 24 tackles and 30 assists... Moved to the offense in the spring of 1980 and picked up the system very quickly... Had been an offensive back as a freshman... A star halfback at Shelby High... Sparked his team to the 1976 state championship... MVP in the title game... Played in the 1977 Shrine Bowl... Majoring in geology... Very active in FCA... Born January 22, 1960.

BOBBY COBB
Wide Receiver
6-0, 180, Junior
Mebane, N.C.

Number three split end going into the fall... Walk-on who played on the junior varsity last year... Showed some improvement in the spring... Extremely hard worker... A hustler with a positive attitude... Needs to be more consistent catching the ball... Had an 18-yard reception in the spring game... Captain of his Orange High School team in 1978... All-Conference selection at end... Majoring in RTVMP... Would like to be a television broadcaster... Born July 14, 1961.

55

JIM CONIS

Harrisonburg, Va.

Out all last season with mononucleosis... Had played outside linebacker in 1979 and in the spring of 1980... Shifted to inside linebacker last spring... Is behind the other players at this spot... However, this was the position he played in high school... Won all-state honors at Harrisonburg High... Earned eight letters there in football and wrestling... Regional wrestling champ as a junior and senior... Member of the National Honor Society... Majoring in chemistry... Born November 19, 1960.

92

JOE CONWELL
Defensive Tackle
6-5, 250, Junior
Bala Cynwyd, Pa.

Coming off a red-shirt year... Red-shirting has helped him a great deal... Bigger and stronger than a year ago... Had a good spring... Came on and did some things very well... Smart player... Doesn't get fooled very much... Knows the defense pretty well... Strengths are his size and intelligence... Still needs to get a little bigger and stronger... Has a good attitude and wants to succeed... Will play this fall... Ended the spring behind Jack Parry at one tackle... Has gained 35 pounds since coming to Carolina as a 215-pound outside linebacker... Moved to tackle in his freshman year and played on the jayvees... An all-city and all-area performer at Lower Merion High near Philadelphia... All-league and all-area in basketball... Majoring in psychology... Born February 24, 1961.

91

70

GREG CRAWFORD
Offensive Tackle
6-5, 250, Sophomore
Fairfax, Va.

Showed in the spring he can be a solid backup in the offensive line... Played guard on the junior varsity last fall and during off-season practice... Shifted to tackle at the conclusion of the spring work... Goes into the fall as the number two right tackle behind Mike Marr... Has good size and works hard on the field... Good mental toughness... A good student... Played offensive and defensive tackle at W.T. Woodson High... Named to the Washington Star's all-suburban team... First-team Potomac District and All-Northern Virginia... All-state selection... His brother, Bill, is also an offensive lineman at Carolina... Born December 11, 1961.

93

CALVIN DANIELS
Outside Linebacker
6-3, 237, Senior
Goldsboro, N.C.

Played in the shadow of Lawrence Taylor last year, but had an outstanding junior season... Should be one of the premier players in the Atlantic Coast Conference this fall... Definite All-ACC candidate and could challenge for national all-star honors... Named by conference coaches to their pre-season All-ACC team... Has great athletic ability... Big, strong and quick... A very disciplined player... Capable of doing some of the things Taylor did last year... Has worked hard in the weight room during the off-season to get even stronger... Big things are expected from him this year... Also being counted on heavily as a leader... The only returning starter along the Carolina defensive front... Got better and better throughout the 1980 season... Started every game and did an outstanding job... Had a great game against N.C. State, making six big plays... Made seven solo tackles that day and assisted on two others... Had an interception early in the second half of that game to set up a touchdown... Also had four tackles for losses and deflected a pass... ACC Player of the Week for that performance... Also had a big game against East Carolina with seven solo tackles and a sack... Finished the year with 32 tackles and 18 assists... Had 10 tackles for losses... With many teams running away from Taylor, he had to play well and did... Made big plays all year... Had really started to come on late in his sophomore season... Played brilliantly at Virginia that year with three solo tackles, an interception, a fumble recovery and one pass broken up... Then had eight tackles and five assists against Duke the following week in the season finale... Had an interception against Wake Forest... Played defensive tackle on the junior varsity in 1978 and was shifted to outside linebacker the following spring... Had been a defensive tackle at Goldsboro High... An all-conference and All-East selection there... Played in the East-West All-Star Game... A good student... Spends part of his free time working with children at N.C. Memorial Hospital... 54

DAVID DRECHSLER
Offensive Guard
6-4, 250, Junior
Cleveland, N.C.

One of the premier players in college football... Selected by ACC coaches to their pre-season all-conference team... Should contend for All-America honors in just his junior season... Started the last 10 regular-season games in 1980 and the Bluebonnet Bowl... Did an outstanding job... A tremendous athlete... A positive and intense person... Physically and mentally tough... Has great initial quickness off the ball... Very good feet... Has the height and weight one looks for in an offensive lineman... Great explosion on contact and good follow-through... That explosiveness and his aggressiveness make him an outstanding straight-ahead blocker... Speed and quickness make him effective on sweeps... Excellent pass protector... Very intelligent... Picks up things quickly... Has a great attitude and a tremendous desire to play... Came off two knee injuries to have his solid sophomore season... Started at tackle 10 times last year and at left guard for the injured Ron Wooten against Maryland... Football News' third-team Sophomore All-America... Shifted to left guard during the spring... Capable of playing any of the five interior blocking positions... Saw action at all five at one time or another last year... That versatility makes him a valuable man in the Tar Heel offense... Played as a backup in 1979... Started the Clemson game at right guard that year, but suffered a knee injury on the game's second play... Missed the last two regular-season games and the Gator Bowl... Came to Carolina in the fall of 1978, but injured a knee in the pre-season and did not play at all... Got an extra year of eligibility because of that... That extra year may be one reason he plays with such maturity... Another in a long line of standout offensive linemen at Carolina... Could be one of the best of all... Good student who is majoring in business... End, guard and tackle at West Rowan High School... Played in the Shrine Bowl and the East-West All-Star Game... Born July 18, 1960.

ROD ELKINS
Quarterback
6-1, 204, Junior
Greensboro, N.C.

A leading all-star candidate in his junior season... Pre-season All-ACC quarterback on team picked by league coaches... Had an outstanding sophomore year, guiding Carolina to an 11-1 record and a spot in the Top 10... Started every game last fall... His play was a major factor in Carolina leading the Atlantic Coast Conference in total offense and scoring... Completed 81 of 160 passes for 1,002 yards and 11 touchdowns... Tied for the ACC lead in passing efficiency... Had appeared in only one varsity game prior to last season, running the final three plays in a 41-3 victory at Army in 1979... Had an outstanding spring in 1980 and moved into the starting job last August after an injury to Chuck Sharpe... Was brought along slowly because of his inexperience... Didn't throw a lot early and didn't have to with Amos Lawrence and Kelvin Bryant in the backfield... Got better and better throughout the year as he gained experience... Conquered the fear of making a mistake... His 1,002 yards in the air was the most ever by a Carolina sophomore... Cool under fire... Showed great poise... Although he didn't carry the ball much, he is a good runner... Fine scrambler who was sacked just three times all year... Top passing game was a 13 for 21 performance against Georgia Tech... Threw for 201 yards that day and three touchdowns... Named ACC Player of the Week for that performance... Threw for two TDs each against Wake Forest and N.C. State...Scored himself on runs against N.C. State and Duke... Completed 11 of 18 passes for 121 yards against Texas in the Bluebonnet Bowl... Named a second-team Sophomore All-America by the Football News... Had an exceptional spring... With a year of experience behind him, he had more confidence in everything he did... Worked a lot on the little things... Has a great arm... Has learned to read and exploit secondaries... Picks up new things very well... Very coachable... Will be more of a leader on the field this year because of his position and class... Has excellent leadership qualities... Concentration has improved in the last year... Threw 21 passses in the Blue-White Game and got the ball to the receiver 20 times... A pro prospect who is just beginning to realize his potential... Being counted on for a great junior season... Played on the jayvees as a freshman, completing 30 of 48 passes for 446 yards and five TDs... Outstanding all-around athlete at Greensboro Grimsley... All-conference in football, basketball and baseball as a senior... Took his team to the state football playoffs as both a junior and senior... Also led his basketball team to two straight state tournaments... Excellent shortstop in baseball... Majoring in business... Born July 8, 1961.

BRYAN FERREE
Wide Receiver
5-11, 180, Senior
Shelby, N.C.

Listed as the number three flanker going into the fall... Played on the junior varsity last year and averaged 21.0 yards on four kickoff returns... A transfer student from Lenior Rhyne who came out on his own two years ago... Was ineligible to play in 1979 because of his transfer, so saw action strictly on the scout team... Could be a specialty team player this fall... A defensive end at Lenoir Rhyne who was switched to offense here... Tough and hard-nosed... Could have graduated last spring, but chose to come back for a final year of football... All-conference as a senior at Shelby High... President of the student body there... Active in the FCA... Majoring in RTVMP... Would like to be a sportscaster... Born April 28, 1959.

Why Tar Heels ?

University of North Carolina athletic teams are known as the Tar Heels because North Carolina is "The Tar Heel State."

The nickname is said to have been applied to the area's residents as long ago as the Revolutionary War. The production of tar and turpentine was a major industry in the state at that time. Legend has it that British generals noticed barefooted natives with tar on their heels and first used the soubriquet.

Others say the nickname was acquired during the Civil War. Supposedly during one particular battle the Southern forces were being routed. Only the North Carolina brigade was not retreating. Legend has it that Robert E. Lee remarked to one of his officers, "Look at those North Carolina boys. They're holding their ground like they have tar on their heels."

STEVE FORTSON
Nose Guard
6-2, 230, Sophomore
Dayton, Ohio

Won the starting nose guard job during spring practice... Did an excellent job in the off-season drills... Everything seemed to come together for him... Blossomed on and off the field... Matured physically and mentally... Had shown flashes of brilliance in the past... Had lacked consistency then, but displayed that in the spring work... Gave a good effort each outing... Has good athletic ability... Quick with good strength... If he continues to improve, he should be a solid nose guard... Got limited playing time at the line of scrimmage last year... Played some on specialty teams, recording one tackle and two assists... Came to Carolina in 1979, but did not play that season because of a shoulder injury... Got an extra year of eligibility because of that... All-league performer at Alter High School... Also wrestled there... Enjoys music, swimming and cooking... Born March 10, 1961.

WILLIAM FULLER
Defensive Tackle
6-3, 240, Sophomore
Chesapeake, Va.

Excellent young prospect... Goes into the fall as a starter at defensive tackle... Had an outstanding spring... Spent most of the spring working at nose guard... However, since Steve Fortson also had a good spring, it was decided to move Fuller to tackle to get both of them in the starting lineup... Being counted on to help offset the loss of Donnell Thompson and Harry Stanback at this position... Possesses great quickness... Tough and very conscientious... Extremely coachable... Wants to be a great player and works hard at it... Needs to get a little bigger... Lacks experience right now and needs to be more disciplined... But, has all the tools... Could, of course, also be used at nose guard if needed... Played on the jayvees early last year and got some varsity work late in the season... Played some in the Bluebonnet Bowl... Lettered twice in football and twice in track at Indian River High School... All-Tidewater, all-metro, all-city, all-state and Centenary All-America... Born March 8, 1962.

WAYNE GRADY
Wide Receiver
5-11, 195, Sophomore
Spring Hope, N.C.

Junior varsity player last season... Walk-on who has the physical tools... Needs to be more consistent catching the ball... Lacks experience... Needs time to develop... A flanker at Southern Nash High... Two-time all-conference performer who played in the East-West All-Star Game... Majoring in RTVMP.

BUTCH GRIFFIN
Outside Linebacker
6-1, 207, Sophomore
Williamston, N.C.

Fine all-around athlete... Will battle for playing time as a reserve outside linebacker this fall... Has good speed and quickness... Very intelligent player... Disciplined... A good technician... Needs to be a little bigger and stronger... But, has the potential to be an excellent outside linebacker... Lack of experience is his major problem right now... Contributed a great deal as a specialty team player last year and should do so again this fall... Had seven solo tackles on kick coverage and three assists... Very coachable young man... Fullback and linebacker at Williamston High... Gained over 800 yards rushing as a senior and averaged 12 solo tackles a game... Twice an all-conference and all-area selection... Played in the East-West All-Star-Game... Born November 25, 1962.

JIMBO HARRELL
Deep Snapper
6-0, 214, Senior
Burgaw, N.C.

Handles all the deep snaps for punts and placements... Has handled that job for three years and has been very good at it... Gets good velocity on his snaps... Also a leader on punt coverage team... Got downfield after snaps to make three solo tackles and assist on three others last year... Quality person who is well-liked by his teammates... Fullback and linebacker at Pender High... An All-East selection as a senior... Played in the North-South All-Star Game... Likes sailing and water-skiing... An excellent student in business administration... Spent the summer working in Washington on a business fellowship... Interested in Law School... Born November 26, 1959.

WILLIE HARRIS
Defensive Back
6-1, 185, Sophomore
Wilson, N.C.

Gained experience on specialty teams last year... Also got some playing time in the secondary... Made three tackles and assisted on four others... Will definitely be a specialty team player again this fall... Ended spring practice behind Bill Jackson at strong safety... That's where he played as a freshman... Has good toughness and fine instincts... Plays the run very well... Coachable... Played safety and wide receiver at James B. Hunt High... All-conference and all-area for three straight seasons... Two-time all-area selection in basketball and sectional qualifier in 400 in track... Wilson Daily Times' High School Athlete of the Year as a senior... Born April 6, 1962.

CLAY HASSARD
Offensive Guard
6-5, 240, Sophomore
Charlotte, N.C.

Ended the spring as David Drechsler's backup at left guard... Made good improvement during the spring workouts... Hard worker with fine potential... An aggressive young player... Should be a solid reserve... Has the tools to eventually be a starter... Lacks experience right now... Played on the jayvees last season... Also saw some varsity action... Played tight end, defensive end, offensive tackle and linebacker at Myers Park High... Started at defensive end in the Shrine Bowl... Earned two letters in football and basketball and three in track... Has a brother, Tim, on Alabama's football team and a twin brother, Ashley, on Guilford's squad... Born November 3, 1961.

VICTOR HARRISON
Wide Receiver
5-9, 180, Junior
Warrenton, N.C.

Proved last year he could be one of the top receivers in the Atlantic Coast Conference... Really came on at mid-season... Was Carolina's second-leading receiver with 16 catches for 210 yards and three touchdowns... All of his receptions came in the last nine games... Started the last half of the year at flanker... Voted ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week for his play against N.C. State... Had four catches that day for 50 yards and two touchdowns... His scoring plays covered 22 and 11 yards... His other TD catch was an eight-yard reception against Georgia Tech... Had three catches for 55 yards against Virginia... Has very good speed... Has the ability to get open and excellent moves once he catches the football... Made a lot of improvement in the spring... Had a great spring game, catching five passes for 81 yards... Enters the fall as the starting split end... Can play flanker, too... Saw only limited varsity action as a freshman... Scored four touchdowns in a jayvee game that year against Duke and had a fifth called back because of a penalty... Had five catches in that game for 71 yards and three TDs... Other score came on an 88-yard kickoff return... Returned 13 kickoffs for touchdowns at John Graham High School... Also competed in basketball, baseball and track there... MVP in four sports as a senior... All-state in football... Majoring in RTVMP... Wants to be a sportscaster... Born February 9, 1961.

JEFF HAYES
Kicking Specialist
6-0, 173, Senior
Elkin, N.C.

Soccer-style kicker who has handled all the place kicks for the last three years... Has the talent to be one of the nation's premier kickers... Consistency is his only problem... Carolina's third-leading scorer last year with 55 points... Made 34 of 36 PATs and seven of 16 field goal attempts... Set an Atlantic Coast Conference and school record by running a consecutive PAT string to 54 before missing at Wake Forest... Equalled the longest field goal of his career with a 47-yarder against East Carolina... Had also kicked 47-yarders against Miami and Virginia as a freshman and East Carolina as a sophomore... That latter field goal came with 13 seconds to play and tied the game... Made field goals last year from 22, 37, 46, 47, 42, 22 and 40 yards... The 42-yarder came in the second half against Clemson and was a key factor in Carolina's 24-19 victory... Missed last season from 33, 27, 39, 47, 44, 62, 29, 25 and 27... Added a 31-yard field goal in the Bluebonnet Bowl... Scored 53 points as a sophomore and 43 as a freshman... Made 35 straight extra points in 1979, becoming the first Tar Heel to have a perfect season kicking PATs... Had five field goals of over 40 yards that season, a school single-season record... Holds the Carolina career mark of 40-yard field goals with 11... His 32-yard field goal in the fourth quarter proved to be the difference in Carolina's 17-15 Gator Bowl victory over Michigan in 1979... Kicked a 53-yard field goal in the 1980 spring game... Now has 151 points in his career, the sixth-highest total in school history... The only Tar Heel kicker with more points is Tom Biddle with 169... Did a great job on kickoffs last year... Only three (not counting squibs) landed outside the five-yard line... That was a big factor in Carolina's excellent kick coverage... Could be the punter this fall... Did a good job punting the last week-and-a-half of the spring... Averaged 45.6 yards punting in the spring game... Good athlete who has developed his total body in his time here... In addition to kicking, also played quarterback at Elkin High... Was the MVP in the 1977 Shrine Bowl... Majoring in RTVMP... Born August 19, 1959.

DAVID HEMPHILL
6-1, 194, Junior
Ellicott City, Md.

A junior varsity player for the last two seasons... Enters the fall as the number two flanker... Has all the physical tools to play... Very good speed... Just needs consistency... If he can develop that, he has the ability to make a contribution... Had a 53-yard touchdown catch in a jayvee game against Liberty Baptist last fall... Had eight catches for 130 yards against the Duke jayvees in 1979... Had a 43-yard TD catch that year against Fork Union... Strangely, he had a 74-yard catch against Carolina while playing at Fork Union in 1978... Was salutatorian at Fork Union... An all-metro end at Glenelg High School... Majoring in chemistry.

65

LEE ICKES
Nose Guard
6-0, 235, Junior
Wheelersburg, Ohio

Will contend for playing time at nose guard... Battling Ronnie Snipes for the top backup job there... Moved from defensive tackle to nose guard in the spring... Did a good job in the off-season drills... Had a couple of very good scrimmages and then played well in the Blue-White Game... Very tough and a hard worker... Always keeps trying... A steady performer whose style of play is similar to that of Bob Duncan, a starter in 1979... Jayvee player for the last two years who has seen limited varsity action... All-state linebacker at Wheelersburg High... Conference lineman of the year as a senior... Born December 26, 1960.

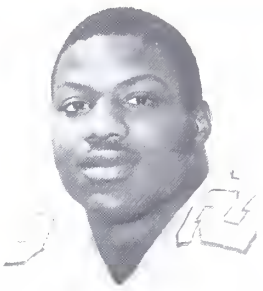
AARON JACKSON
Outside Linebacker
6-4, 230, Freshman
Washington, D.C.

Suffered a knee injury last fall and missed all of his freshman season... Got a hardship ruling and an extra year of eligibility... Started slowly, but made great progress near the end of spring practice... Is in contention for a backup spot behind Calvin Daniels... Getting bigger and stronger... Great speed for a man of his size... Since he missed all of last year he lacks experience right now... However, he has good potential... Tight end, linebacker and runningback at Bullis School... Twice an all-conference selection... All-metro and conference player-of-the-year as a senior... Intercepted three passes that year, blocked four kicks, caused five fumbles and had 11 quarterback sacks... Earned two letters in football, basketball and track... Conference's top rebounder as a senior... Set school record in 440-yard dash and also ran on 440-relay team... Born March 16, 1961.

28



BILL JACKSON
Defensive Back
6-1, 202, Senior
Winston-Salem, N.C.

All-conference candidate at strong safety... Started all 12 games last season and had a good year... A steady player who didn't have a bad game all season... Played exceptionally well against Texas in the Bluebonnet Bowl... Made eight tackles and assisted on five others against Duke... Had six solos and five assists at Wake Forest... Finished the year with 40 solo tackles, 35 assists, three tackles for losses and a sack... Sixth-leading tackler on the team... Saw reserve action behind Ricky Barden as a sophomore... A hard worker with a good attitude... Big and strong... Has good range... Plays both the run and pass extremely well... Aggressive and enthusiastic... Can run and is a hitter... Coachable and conscientious... Seldom makes a mistake... Quiet, but a good leader... A linebacker on the same North Forsyth High School team as current teammate Darrell Nicholson... Played in the North-South All-Star Game... Majoring in RTVMP... Born August 1, 1960.

63

DONALD LUCAS
Defensive Tackle
6-4, 255, Senior
Norfolk, Va.

Injured a knee late last year and missed the end of the season... His rehabilitation has been good, but he was unable to take part in spring practice... Expected to be ready in August... A key for him will be a good pre-season since he missed the spring work and is behind the other players at this position... Has the ability to help the defensive front... Was coming on pretty well as Donnell Thompson's backup last fall before his injury... Very competitive and wants to play... A hard worker who has matured a great deal in his time here... Big, strong and quick... Came to Carolina as an offensive guard... Got some playing time at that position in 1977 and 1978... Moved to defense the following year and was red-shirted to gain experience... Started a couple of games in 1977... Made the Football News Freshman All-America team... Played at Lake Taylor High with former Tar Heel stars Amos Lawrence and Ricky Barden... An all-metro performer there... Majoring in recreation... Born February 11, 1959.

56

MIKE MARR
Offensive Tackle
6-4, 255, Senior
Burlington, N.C.

A key in the Carolina offensive line... Suffered a knee injury in the spring and missed most of the off-season work... Has worked hard to rehabilitate his knee... Expected to be ready to start at right tackle this fall... If he is 100 percent, he should be one of the premier linemen in the ACC... Has good athletic ability... Good initial quickness... Has size, speed, intelligence and strength... A fine leader on and off the field... Very coachable... Has a tremendous desire to play the game... Good competitor and hustler... Explodes off the line of scrimmage... Got off to a slow start last year and did not start at Texas Tech... Came back and played very well after that... May have been Carolina's best blocker down the stretch... Initially moved into the starting lineup late in the 1979 season... Started the last three games of the regular season that year and against Michigan in the Gator Bowl... Prep All-America at Irmo High School in Columbia, S.C.... Captain of the South Carolina team in the 1977 Shrine Bowl... Majoring in business... Born July 31, 1960.

STEVE McGREW
Offensive Guard
6-2, 245, Junior
Cincinnati, Ohio

Listed as the backup right guard on the depth chart, but considered Carolina's "sixth" starter by the coaching staff... Capable of playing guard or center... That versatility is a big asset to the Tar Heels... Should get a lot of playing time this fall... With Mike Marr injured, Steve was a starter much of the spring... Did a good job... Good quality person with a great desire to succeed... Tremendous hustler and competitor... Good second-effort player... Comes early to practice and stays late to improve... Has good feet and initial quickness... Fine pass blocker... Mentally tough... Came to Carolina at 210 pounds and now weighs 245... Played with the number two unit last year and on the junior varsity as a freshman... All-league performer at Moeller High in Cincinnati... Moeller was state champion three of the four years he was there and also won two national titles... Never missed a day of classes in his high school career... An excellent student... 42

TOMMY MULLMANN
Linebacker
6-2, 225, Sophomore
Matthews, N. C.

A reserve behind Darrell Nicholson at linebacker... Showed some good signs in the spring... Could see action this year... A possibility for the specialty teams... Still gaining weight, strength and experience... Good worker... Eventually will be a factor in the Tar Heel defense... Played on the junior varsity last fall... Fullback and linebacker at East Mecklinburg High... Played only four and a half games in his senior season there because of an injury... Played in the North-South All-Star Game... Born November 8, 1961.

40

T.J. MURRAY
Outside Linebacker
6-4, 202, Sophomore
Springfield, Va.

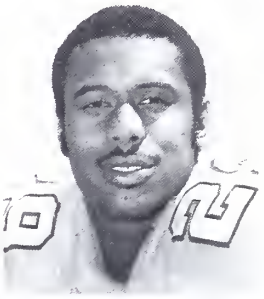
Moved from inside linebacker to OLB during the spring... Separated a shoulder during the spring drills and is hard to evaluate because of that... Has the ability to play... Good speed and quickness... Needs more strength... Understands the position... Just lacks experience right now... Jayvee player last fall... Handled much of the junior varsity punting and also intercepted two passes... All-America linebacker at West Springfield High... All-metro on teams chosen by the Washington Star and Washington Post... Born September 17, 1962.

89

JIM NAUGHTON
Wide Receiver
5-11, 172, Sophomore
Doylestown, Pa.

Walk-on who played on the junior varsity last year... Made improvement in the spring... Was more consistent catching the ball... Hard worker... Good practice player... Lack of speed is a problem right now... Fine high school receiver at Central Bucks East... Current Carolina teammate Scott Stankavage was his quarterback there... His dad, Jim, was a tackle on the 1963 Tar Heel team which won the Gator Bowl... Plans to major in business... Born October 31, 1962.

29



DARRELL NICHOLSON
Linebacker
6-2, 234, Senior
Winston-Salem, N.C.

All-America candidate in his senior season... Already named to Southern Living's All-South team... Ready to begin his fourth year as a starter... Should end his career with about as much playing time as anyone in Tar Heel history.... A very tough football player... Knows no speed but full speed... That's true even in practice... Always goes all out... His best asset may simply be his ability to hit people... One of the best hitters in the game... Knows where the football is and makes something happen when he gets there... Like all great linebackers, he's always around the ball... One of the team leaders in the off-season conditioning program... Has added weight and strength since last season... Worked on improving his quickness in the spring... Has improved his pass coverage... A natural leader... Will call the defensive signals this fall... All-ACC selection last year... Named on 87 ballots to easily rate as the top vote-getter at linebacker... Tar Heels' leading tackler with 75 solos and 42 assists... Came on strong at the end of last season... Had gotten off to a slow start for him, but was outstanding down the stretch... His play was a major reason Carolina ranked among the national leaders in total defense and scoring defense... Seems to play well in the biggest games... Had a fourth quarter interception at Texas Tech to help seal that victory... Had 12 tackles and four assists in that game... ACC Player of the Week after making nine solo tackles and assisting on four others at Wake Forest... Recovered a fumble to set up a touchdown against N.C. State... Had seven tackles and five assists against Maryland... Made a big play at the goal line in that game... Threw Mike Tice for a two-yard loss on a fourth-down play in the fourth quarter... Second to Buddy Curry in tackles each of his first two seasons... Had 101 solos as a junior and 46 assists... Intercepted passes that year against South Carolina and Virginia... May have played the greatest game of his career against Clemson with 19 tackles and six assists... ACC Rookie of the Year as a freshman... Started the last eight games that season and twice was named ACC Player of the Week... Brilliant at Clemson with 16 tackles, two of them for losses... Intercepted a pass against Miami... First-team Freshman All-America... High School All-America at North Forsyth... Already in that school's Hall of Fame... Played in the Shrine Bowl... Also wrestled at North, finishing second in the state at heavyweight in his senior year... Majoring in communications... Born August 23, 1959.

Transfer from Ferrum Junior College... Went through spring practice... Spent most of the spring just getting adjusted to the Carolina system... Showed some good signs near the end of the off-season work... Very aggressive... Could contribute this fall... Goes into the new season as a backup cornerback... Runningback and defensive back at Smith High School... Was a sprinter on his track team... His brother, Ike, was a Tar Heel tailback in the early 1970's... Majoring in RTVMP... Born January 16, 1961.

DWIGHT PARRISH
Linebacker
6-2, 216, Sophomore
Danville, Va.

A reserve behind Darrell Nicholson at linebacker... Starter on the junior varsity last season... Made improvement in the spring... Has excellent strength... A good hitter... Once he learns to react to blockers, he'll definitely be able to help... Needs to improve his flexibility... Could be a specialty team player... Good student who is in the ROTC program... Played linebacker at George Washington High... That's the same school which produced former Carolina standout Buddy Curry and incoming freshman Steve Hendrickson... All-state selection... Also named to the Centenary All-America team... Attended Boys State in 1979 and was an executive officer in the NJROTC program at George Washington... Born October 27, 1961.

64

JACK PARRY
Defensive Tackle
6-1, 241, Junior
Mechanicsburg, Pa.

Being counted on as a starter this fall... The backup nose guard last year... Shifted to tackle during spring practice and won a starting berth... Had started at tackle for the junior varsity in 1979, but was switched to nose guard in the spring of 1980... Moved back to tackle in an effort to help offset the loss of Donnell Thompson and Harry Stanback... Has good quickness and body balance... Smart and tough... Knows how to use his hands... Improved as a pass rusher in the spring... Excellent against the run... Strong and very competitive... Loves to play and always gives 100 percent... Saw considerable action last fall... Started at Texas Tech while Paul Davis was injured... Did an excellent job that day with two tackles and four assists... Had four tackles, three assists and a sack against Furman... Finished the year with 14 tackles and 11 assists... Had four tackles for losses... Has been a heavyweight on Carolina's wrestling team for the last two years... Has gotten a late start each season because of Carolina's participation in bowl games... Finished third at heavyweight in the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament as a freshman... All-metro in football and All-America in wrestling at Mechanicsburg High... State wrestling runner-up as a junior and state champ as a senior... Majoring in business... Born December 7, 1960.

Soccer-style kicker... Kicked for the junior varsity last year and is now trying to challenge Jeff Hayes for the varsity job... Has improved a lot in the last year... Needs more range... Has potential... Kicked a 42-yard field goal in the Blue-White Game... Quarterback and kicker at Jupiter High School... All-conference selection twice and all-state as a senior... Majoring in physics... Wants to be an engineer... Born September 7, 1962.

JEFF PIERCE
Outside Linebacker
6-0, 215, Senior
Hickory, N.C.

Finished the spring as Mike Wilcher's backup at one outside linebacker... Also capable of playing the other side... Should get plenty of action... Intelligent player who is an excellent technician... Steady... Very coachable... Can be one of the defensive leaders... Just needs to be a little bigger and stronger... Works hard all the time... Doesn't make mental mistakes... Hard-nosed competitor... Nagging injuries curtailed his playing time last year... Saw some specialty team action... Made five solo tackles and had four assists... Started a couple of games as a sophomore and saw considerable action throughout the season... Had 18 tackles and eight assists... Also had a key fumble recovery that year at N.C. State to set up a touchdown... A defensive back on the jayvees as a freshman... Fullback and linebacker at Hickory High and Episcopal High... Majoring in zoology... Would like to go to med school... Born October 13, 1959.

GREG POOLE
Defensive Back
6-1, 199, Junior
China Grove, N.C.

Started every game at right cornerback last year... Was moved to that spot just a week before the season opener after an injury to David Singleton... Had been the number two strong safety... Made the adjustment very smoothly and had a solid sophomore season... Made 15 tackles and had 14 assists... Broke up four passes in the secondary... Had an interception and fumble recovery at Oklahoma... Made a big sack in the fourth quarter against Clemson... Made good improvement in the spring and should be an even better player this fall... Has the size and speed to be an outstanding cornerback... Smart and has a lot of savvy... Strong against the run... Reacts well to the pass... Being counted on for leadership in the secondary this fall... Coachable young man... Also handled punt returns last year... Had a 41-yard return against Furman... Had 351 yards on punt returns, the third highest total in Carolina history... Only players to have more yardage were Crowell Little in 1936 (355) and Don Jackson in 1935 (363)... Had 41 returns, averaging 8.6 yards per attempt... Top game was six returns for 70 yards against Wake Forest... Excellent concentration makes him a good return specialist... Had been a specialty team player as a freshman... Had a 65-yard punt return for a touchdown in a jayvee game that year against Fork Union... All-state and conference MVP as a senior at South Rowan High School... Also competed in baseball and basketball there... Plays the trombone, drums and piano... An excellent student majoring in computer science... Born February 5, 1961.

CLIFFORD POWELL
Tight End
6-5, 228, Sophomore
Rocky Mount, N.C.

Being counted on to provide depth at tight end... However, had surgery during the summer and is somewhat of a question mark going into the fall.. Played on the junior varsity last season... Saw only limited varsity action... Really didn't make the adjustment from high school to college football until the spring... Came on strong the last two weeks of the off-season drills... Made excellent strides in his blocking... Has always been a good receiver... Had four catches for 48 yards in the Blue-White Game... Played tight end, defensive end, offensive tackle and defensive tackle at Rocky Mount Senior High... Also did some kicking... His teams won three straight conference championships... Named to Scholastic Coach's All-America team... Selected North Carolina High School Lineman of the Year as a senior by the Greensboro Daily News... Played in the Shrine Bowl and the East-West All-Star Game... Born January 4, 1962.

STANLEY PUGH
Defensive Back
6-1, 190, Sophomore
Windsor, N.C.

Outstanding athlete who has made great strides as a defensive back... Instincts for defense must still improve... Made progress in that area during the spring... Did a fine job in the spring and ended the drills as Greg Poole's backup at cornerback... A good worker and very coachable... Exceptional man-to-man defender... Must learn to play other coverages as well as he does man-to-man... Has a good future at this position... Played in the secondary on the junior varsity last fall... Also did a good job at quarterback on the scout team when needed... Quarterback and defensive back at Bertie High... Guided his team to an 8-2-1 record as a junior and a 7-3 mark as a senior... In two seasons of varsity play, he scored 19 touchdowns, gained over 1,600 yards rushing and threw for over 1,400 yards... Born November 6, 1961.

BOB RATLIFF
Tailback
6-2, 200, Sophomore
Laurinburg, N.C.

Could be a factor in the backfield this season... Goes into the fall as the team's number three tailback, but is expected to challenge Tyrone Anthony for the number two spot... A big kid who has good tools... Has good strength and runs hard... Was hampered in the spring by injuries... Has the versatility to also play fullback... Saw spot action with the varsity last year... Had 14 carries for 52 yards... Gained 96, 69 and 151 yards in three jayvee games... Gained his 151 yards against Massanutten on just eight carries... Had a 62-yard TD run in that game... Played blocking back at Scotland County High for two years... Shifted to tailback as a senior and responded with 1,490 yards in nine games and 26 touchdowns... Had a single-game high of 232 yards... SHELTON ROBINSON
Tight End
6-1, 233, Senior
Goldsboro, N.C.

One of the finest blockers in the Atlantic Coast Conference... A top all-star candidate in his senior season... Has started 24 straight games at Carolina... Did not catch a pass last year, but graded out in every game... His blocking is that sensational... Has great strength... Excellent feet... His blocking ability makes him a key man in the Tar Heel ground game... Always gets the job done... Hard-nosed and tough... Hasn't gotten a lot of recognition except from those who closely follow the game... A very dedicated athlete... Had an outstanding spring, especially catching the football.. Made great strides as a receiver in the spring... Really didn't have to be a standout receiver in the past... In passing situations, the Tar Heels usually went to their other tight end, Mike Chatham, an excellent receiver... Now with Chatham graduated, Robinson will be a more prominent part of the Carolina air attack... Had two catches for 42 yards in the spring game... Jayvee player as a freshman... Started out in the secondary, was shifted to outside linebacker and then to tight end... Played both ways in one junior varsity game... Linebacker and halfback at Charles B. Aycock High ... Also competed in track there... Majoring in business... Born September 14, 1960.

LEE SHAFFER
Linebacker
6-1, 213, Senior
Durham, N.C.

Carolina's second-leading tackler last year... Had 63 solo tackles and 39 assists in his first year at this position... Had two fumble recoveries and caused another himself... Had 11 tackles, two assists and a fumble recovery at Clemson... Played well against Texas in the Bluebonnet Bowl, tying for third in defensive MVP voting... Did a good job in the spring... Teams with Darrell Nicholson to give Carolina an outstanding pair of linebackers... Always around the football... Not a great technician, but gets the job done... Doesn't always execute exactly the right way, but still manages to accomplish his assignments... Still, he will be an even better player if he can improve his techniques... Is in on a lot of tackles... Made some big plays last fall... Even better things are expected of him this season... An intelligent, aggressive player... One of the most highly-conditioned athletes on the Carolina team... Runs very well... Pretty good leader... Has a good understanding of Carolina's defensive scheme... An outside linebacker in his first two years here... Was shifted inside in the spring of 1980 and won the starting spot vacated by Buddy Curry... Did a good job against Pittsburgh as a sophomore with a quarterback sack and a fumble recovery which set up a touchdown... Started against Wake Forest as a freshman and responded with eight tackles, including two sacks, and three assists... An all-metro linebacker at Episcopal High... Captain of the football, basketball and track teams there... His dad, Lee, Sr., was an All-America basketball player at Carolina... CHUCK SHARPE
Defensive Back
6-1, 200, Junior
Burlington, N.C.

Missed all of last year's action after suffering a knee injury in the pre-season... Had gone into the fall as the starting quarterback... Since Rod Elkins clearly established himself as the number one quarterback last fall, Sharpe asked to be moved to the secondary... A fine athlete who needs to get playing time... Has strength, speed and quickness... Went through the spring drills, but was not allowed to take part in the contact work... Thus, it's hard to tell what his contributions will be this fall... Has a good understanding of the game... Expected to challenge Walt Black for the starting free safety spot... Also in the running for the punting job... Averaged 45.3 yards per punt in the Blue-White game last spring... Was the backup quarterback in 1978 and 1979... Started five games as a freshman and was ACC Rookie of the Week for his play against Wake Forest, South Carolina and Virginia... Completed 57 of 121 passes that year for 691 yards and five touchdowns... Rushed for 100 yards on just nine carries against Virginia... Was the only Tar Heel quarterback in the 1970's to have a 100-yard rushing day... Named Football News second-team Freshman All-America... Football and baseball star at Walter Williams High School... Majoring in geology... Born August 14, 1960.

BILL SHEPPARD
Linebacker
6-2, 212, Sophomore
Tarawa Terrace, N.C.

Lettered last year as an outside linebacker... Saw most of his action on the specialty teams... Moved to inside linebacker during the spring... Definitely has instincts for the football... That should make him a fine linebacker... Ended the spring as a backup to Lee Shaffer... Tough kid who was impressive in the spring... Runs well... Will get playing time at linebacker... Also will again be a factor on the specialty teams... Grew up on marine bases... Played fullback, tailback and linebacker at Lejeune High... His teams won three conference championships... All-East and all-conference as a junior and senior... Leading rusher and scorer in Onslow County as both a junior and senior... Had over 3,000 yards rushing in those two seasons... Born January 21, 1962.

RON SPRUILL
Offensive Guard
6-2, 250, Junior
Hampton, Va.

Set to begin his second year as a starter at right guard... Started all 12 games last year and did a fine job... His blocking was a key factor in Amos Lawrence and Kelvin Bryant each rushing for 1,000 yards... Teams with David Drechsler to give Carolina an excellent pair of guards... Follows in a long line of great Tar Heel players at this position... Should contend for All-ACC honors... Pittsburgh Steeler type of lineman—not extremely tall, 250 pounds, good speed and excellent strength... Good football intelligence and athletic ability... Hard-nosed and dedicated... Tough and aggressive... Practices hard and plays hard... An intense individual with good work habits... A hitter... Very coachable... Explosive on contact and has the knack for staying on the block... Strength and quickness make him an excellent one-on-one blocker... Fundamentally sound... Got better and better last season and is still improving... Improved his pass protection in the spring... Saw action as a specialty team player in his freshman season... All-state performer at Bethel High... Won district . gional wrestling titles as a senior there and finished third in the)urnament... Five Retired Jersies

Five Carolina football jersies—numbers 22, 46, 50, 59 and 99—have been retired over the years in honor of the men who wore them.

The number 22 was almost as well known as the athlete who wore it—Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice. One of college football's all-time superstars, Justice was an All-America halfback at Carolina from 1946 to 1949. In fact, those years generally are known as simply "The Justice Era" in Chapel Hill.

Carl Snavely, Justice's coach, was instrumental in getting number 46 retired. That belonged to Cotton Sutherland, an outstanding back who was killed in an automobile crash while a Carolina student.

Number 50 was Art Weiner, an All-America end in the late Forties. In 1949 Art caught a school-record 52 passes. He was also a great defensive player.

Another end, Andy Bershak, wore 59. A defensive standout, he was an All-America selection in 1939.

Carolina's first All-America, George Barclay, had the number 99. He was a star guard and earned All-America honors in 1934.

Noting the Tar Heels

Carolina finished the 1980 season ranked ninth in the final United Press International poll and 10th in the last Associated Press poll. With an 11-1 record the Tar Heels equalled the second-best season in school history. The 1972 team was also 11-1, while the 1898 team was 9-0.

Carolina earned nine spots on the 1980 All-ACC team.

Outside linebacker Lawrence Taylor was a unanimous selection. Joining him on the defensive unit were tackle Donnell Thompson (named on 111 of 122 ballots), linebacker Darrell Nicholson (87) and free safety Steve Streater (94).

Carolina's offensive selections were guard Ron Wooten (114), center Rick Donnalley (103), tailback Amos Lawrence (105) and tailback Kelvin Bryant (90).

Streater was also chosen the all-conference punter, becoming the first player in league history to make the All-ACC team at two different positions in the same year.

By being named to all the major All-America teams, outside linebacker Lawrence Taylor became Carolina's fifth consensus All-America in the last 11 years. Carolina's other recent consensus All-Americas were tailback Don McCauley in 1970, offensive guard Ron Rusnak in 1972, offensive guard Ken Huff in 1974 and defensive tackle Dee Harrison in 1977.

Taylor also became only the fourth non-offensive back to be named Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year. The others were Maryland center-linebacker Bob Pelligrini in 1955, Duke tackle Mike McGee in 1959 and Maryland tackle Randy White in 1974.

Carolina led the ACC last season in scoring, scoring defense, total offense, total defense and rushing offense.

The Tar Heels were third in the nation in net punting, eighth in scoring defense, 10th in rushing offense and 11th in total defense.

Chancellor Christopher Fordham

The chancellor at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill is Dr. Christopher C. Fordham III.

Fordham was appointed to the position in February, 1980 by the University's Board of Governors. The Board was acting on the recommendation of William Friday, president of the consolidated university system.

Fordham was Vice-Chancellor of Health Affairs at the University from 1977 to his appointment as chancellor. He served as Dean of Carolina's School of Medicine from 1971 to 1979 and holds a professorship in the School of Medicine.

Fordham succeeded Ferebee Taylor as chancellor. Taylor served in that role from 1972 to January, 1980.

"I have known Dr. Fordham for many years," said President Friday, in making the announcement. "He is a courageous, fair and aggressive leader who has abundantly demonstrated his love for the University. His perception of the nature and purpose of this noble institution is clear, and he will lead it to a greater fulfillment of its mission of good teaching, solid research and public service appropriate to and expected of the University at Chapel Hill."

Prominent nationally as an educator, Fordham in 1977 turned down the top health office in the nation, assistant secretary for health in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, to stay in Chapel Hill.

Since he joined the Carolina faculty 23 years ago Fordham has held a wide variety of prestigious positions at the University and on the national level.

He is a former member of the executive council of the Association of American Medical Colleges and a past chairman of both the AAMC National Council of Deans and Southern Regional Deans.

A member of the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences, Fordham is also a diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine, a Distinguished Service Member of the AAMC, a fellow of the American College of Physicians and a member of the medical honorary, Alpha Omega Alpha.

In administration for the past 16 years, Fordham served as a member of the chancellor's administrative council prior to taking the University's top job. Thus, he had been exposed to university-wide issues and problems such as admissions, budget and enrollment projections before becoming chancellor.

A native of Greensboro and a 1951 graduate of the Harvard Medical School, Fordham joined the University's School of Medicine and Faculty in 1958. In 1969 he left Chapel Hill to become Vice-President for Medicine and Dean of the School of Medicine at the Medical School of Georgia.

He returned to Chapel Hill in 1971 as professor of medicine and Dean of the School of Medicine.

The School of Medicine made substantial advances during Fordham's deanship. The school expanded its programs, strengthened its faculty and gained increasing national prominence for its excellence and creativity.

The humanitarian overtones of Fordham's health care and outreach programs in the University are well known to his colleagues. In his time as dean, the School of Medicine initiated a statewide regional education program (the Area Health Education Centers program) which has achieved wide recognition as an educational approach to improving the distribution of physicians and other health professional workers. He also has been associated with the growth and strengthening of many other programs within the health schools.

Fordham has a long background in undergraduate education at Carolina. He, his wife, their three daughters, his father and his uncles all attended the University. He is a member of the Central Selection Committee of the John Motley Morehead Foundation which selects undergraduate Morehead scholars and is a member of the Order of the Golden Fleece.

Fordham has contributed numerous articles to published literature ranging from scientific papers to editorials or papers on health policy. He is the author of one book.

Fordham is married to the former Barbara Byrd of Greensboro. They have three daughters—Pamela Fordham Richey of New Bern, Susan Fordham Crowell of Chapel Hill and Betsy Fordham Templeton of Nashville, Tenn.

Athletic Director John Swofford

John Swofford, a former Tar Heel football player, is beginning his second year as director of athletics at the University of North Carolina.

Swofford became athletic director on May 1, 1980. He was named to the position by Chancellor Christopher Fordham, replacing Bill Cobey who had resigned to pursue public office.

Swofford's first year on the job was a most successful one. The Tar Heel football team went 11-1 and was ranked ninth and tenth in the final wire service polls; the basketball team reached the NCAA championship game; the lacrosse team captured the NCAA title in that sport; and Carolina tied for first in the race for the Carmichael Cup, symbolic of overall athletic excellence in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

In addition, Swofford's first year as athletic director was busy off the field, too. Carolina began raising funds for a new Student Activities Center, a $30,000,000 complex which will include a 22,000-seat basketball arena; the school's tennis bubble for indoor play was completed; a halfway house was constructed at Finley Golf Course; three new holes were created at Finley; dressing rooms were renovated at Boshamer Stadium; the Educational Foundation staff was bolstered; Carolina hosted the ACC Baseball Tournament and its own invitational golf tournament; and a new five-year radio contract was signed with Village Companies of Chapel Hill.

The upcoming year promises to be just as full of activity. Swofford plans to begin construction of a new field complex which will include permanent home fields for field hockey and softball and practice areas for the lacrosse and soccer teams; Carolina's astroturf football practice field will be replaced; the University will host the AIAW National Soccer Championships and the NCAA Golf Tournament; and discussions on the possible expansion of Boshamer Stadium will be held.

These accomplishments and plans for the future are a good indication Swofford is well aware of the problems facing intercollegiate athletics and how to cope with them. But, Chancellor Fordham knew that when he named him athletic director.

"John Swofford is a bright and energetic young administrator with an abundance of enthusiasm for Carolina athletics," said the Chancellor at the time. "He brings imagination, talent and experience into a position that is very important to the University. I am confident that he will do well in this demanding new role."

That confidence was echoed by Football Coach Dick Crum and Basketball Coach Dean Smith.

"I'm delighted at the choice," said Crum a year ago. "John has everything involving athletics at an academically-oriented university in the proper perspective. That's what we need."

"John will be an excellent athletic director," added Smith. "I'm glad the choice came from within the University as we have had good continuity through the years. John is the type of young man we need in intercollegiate athletics."

Swofford gives the credit for Carolina's recent successes to the people around him.

"We have an outstanding coaching, administrative and clerical staff, and with their help, our primary goal will be to continue the tradition of integrity and excellence that has been the trademark of Carolina athletics," he says. "Our athletic program is a part of a great university. It is a special place and we will strive to reflect her values and character.

"We will continue our commitment to a strong overall program and we will continually strive to operate on the principle that the student-athletes who are participants in our various sports are our greatest assets. We must be committed to their positive development as individuals while they are a part of our athletic program."

A native of North Wikesboro, N.C., Swofford first came to Carolina as a Morehead Scholar in 1967. He graduated in 1971 with an A.B. in psychology and industrial relations.

He played quarterback and defensive back on Tar Heel football teams in 1969, 1970 and 1971. Those last two teams went to the Peach Bowl and Gator Bowl. He tied a then-school record against Vanderbilt in 1969 by throwing three touchdown passes in one game.

Swofford was named to the ACC Academic Honor Roll and Who's Who in College Athletics. He also served as president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes on campus.

In 1973 he earned a masters in athletic administration at Ohio University. In his time there Swofford served as a graduate assistant to the assistant business manager of athletics.

From 1973 to 1976 he was athletic ticket manager and assistant to the director of athletic facilities and finance at the University of Virginia. His duties in that job included directing all ticket sales, advertising and promotions. He also handled game contract settlements, stadium and coliseum operations and team travel arrangements.

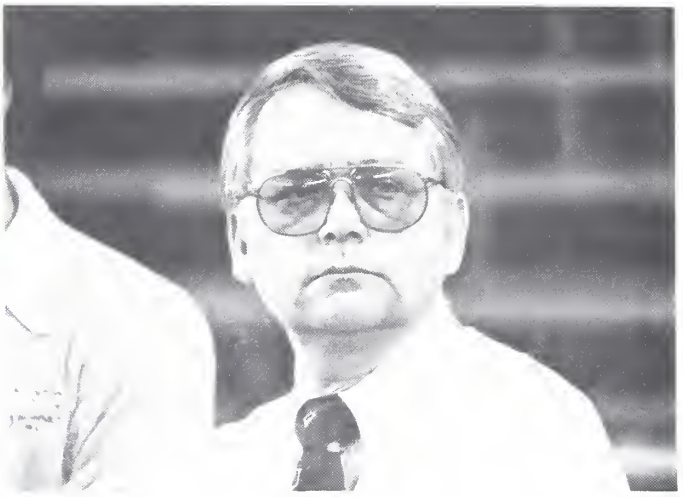
He returned to Carolina in May, 1976 as assistant athletic director and business manager, handling all the athletic department's business affairs. Among his many other responsibilities were handling fund-raising affairs, team travel and the athletic dining hall. He also coordinated sports camps.

Although he remained assistant athletic director, Swofford dropped the business manager title and was named assistant executive vice-president of the Educational Foundation in January, 1979. In that job he was in charge of the overall financial structure of the athletic department. His position with the Educational Foundation involved general office procedures, membership services and fund-raising.

Swofford is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Athletic Directors and is on the Board of Directors of the Ohio University Athletic Administration Program. He is a member of the Board of Directors of North Carolina National Bank and this spring was named one of the Outstanding Young Men of America. He is chairman of the ACC Soccer, Lacrosse and Women's Liaison committees. He also serves on the ACC Bowl Committee. He is also on the administrative board at University Methodist Church.

A regular jogger, Swofford enjoys reading and tennis. He is married to the former Becky Owens of North Wilkesboro. They have two children, Autumn and Chad.

Head Coach Dick Crum



The head football coach at the University of North Carolina is Dick Crum, a man with one of the best records in the college game.

Crum, beginning his fourth year as the Tar Heel coach, goes into the 1981 season with a career record of 58-20-2. That's a winning percentage of .738 and is the eighth best of any active coach who has been on the major college level at least five seasons.

The only coaches ahead of him in winning percentage are Oklahoma's Barry Switzer, John Robinson of Southern California, Penn State's Joe Paterno, Michigan's Bo Schembechler, Tom Osborne of Nebraska, Alabama's Bear Bryant and Tony Knap of Nevada-Las Vegas.

Last fall Crum's Tar Heels posted an 11-1 record, equalling the winningest season in school history. At one point in the year Carolina was ranked as high as sixth nationally before finishing ninth in the final United Press International coaches' poll and 10th in the last Associated Press poll. Included in those 11 wins was a 16-7 victory over Texas in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Bowl victories are certainly nothing new to Crum, however. In fact, he has a perfect 4-0 record in bowl competition.

But, that's to be expected. Over the years Crum's teams have a history of being well-prepared and ready to play in the really big games. At Miami of Ohio he guided the Redskins to numerous victories over more highly-regarded opponents. In his time at Carolina, Crum has helped the Tar Heels score impressive wins over Pittsburgh, Michigan, South Carolina and Texas.

"Dick Crum is an outstanding coach," says Carolina Athletic Director John Swofford, "and an outstanding person as well. He has an excellent perspective of what intercollegiate football should be at an institution like Carolina. He's a credit to the game."

Crum, 47, became the Tar Heel coach in January, 1978. He replaced Bill Dooley who had resigned to become athletic director and head coach at Virginia Tech. Prior to coming to Chapel Hill, Crum had been the head coach at Miami University for four seasons, posting a 34-10-1 record.

In announcing the selection of Crum as Dooley's replacement, Carolina Chancellor Ferebee Taylor said, "Dick Crum was the unanimous choice of our nominating committee to be the new football coach.

"Coach Crum's outstanding record at Miami University speaks for itself and we are confident that, under his leadership, our football program will continue to maintain Carolina's high standards of excellence."

It has done just that. Crum got off to a rough start as his first Tar Heel team suffered a disappointing 5-6 season in 1978. The problem of players adjusting to a new coaching staff and an assortment of injuries were the major reasons for that losing mark. However, Crum quickly brought Carolina back to national prominence.

His 1979 team had the best record in the Atlantic Coast Conference, going 8-3-1 and finishing 14th and 15th in the wire service polls. The Tar Heels were the only team in the country to beat Pittsburgh that year and toppled Michigan, 17-15, in the Gator Bowl.

Then came last year's 11-1 campaign. The Tar Heels won the ACC championship and were nationally-ranked all season. Carolina was 10th nationally in rushing offense, eighth in scoring defense, 11th in total defense and third in net punting. The Tar Heels led the ACC in scoring, scoring defense, total offense, total defense and rushing offense. Crum was ACC and District Three Coach of the Year.

Two of Crum's players, outside linebacker Lawrence Taylor and offensive guard Ron Wooten, won first-team All-America honors. Three others—center Rick Donnalley, defensive tackle Donnell Thompson and tailback Amos Lawrence—were second or third-team All-America choices. Taylor was the ACC Player of the Year.

Crum has had four 1,000-yard rushers in his three seasons at Carolina. Tar Heel quarterbacks have ranked first in the ACC in passing each of the past two seasons. Carolina has scored more points and gained more yardage than any other ACC team in the last two years.

Ironically, Crum is best known for his defensive philosophies. And he still says defense will be the key to Carolina's football success.

"I think you win championships with good defensive teams," he says. "Fundamentals are also so important in football. If you play fundamental and sound football and don't make mistakes, you're going to win a lot of games."

Crum certainly plans on winning a lot more games at Carolina. Those who have gotten to know him in his time here have no doubt about that.

"Coach Crum is building one of the best programs in the country here," says one of his former players. "The thing I like about him is he's a player's coach. The players come first to him. He's really interested in doing anything he can for us, whether it relates to football or not."

Former Tar Heel All-America Don McCauley, now a member of the Baltimore Colts, agrees.

"The first time I met Dick Crum, I liked him," says McCauley. "It was very easy to talk to him. I think he's the kind of guy the players here are going to like because his main concern seems to be their futures."

One reason for Crum's good rapport with his young players may be his 12 years of experience as a high school coach. He considers those years great preparation for his college coaching career.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Crum attended Boardman High School and then enrolled at Muskingum College. He later transferred to Mount Union College where he received his B.S. degree in 1957, majoring in mathematics with a minor in physics. He also holds an M.Sc. from Western Reserve.

In football, Crum was a non-scholarship halfback. He saw most of his action with the B team and it was there he learned of the great importance of fundamentals.

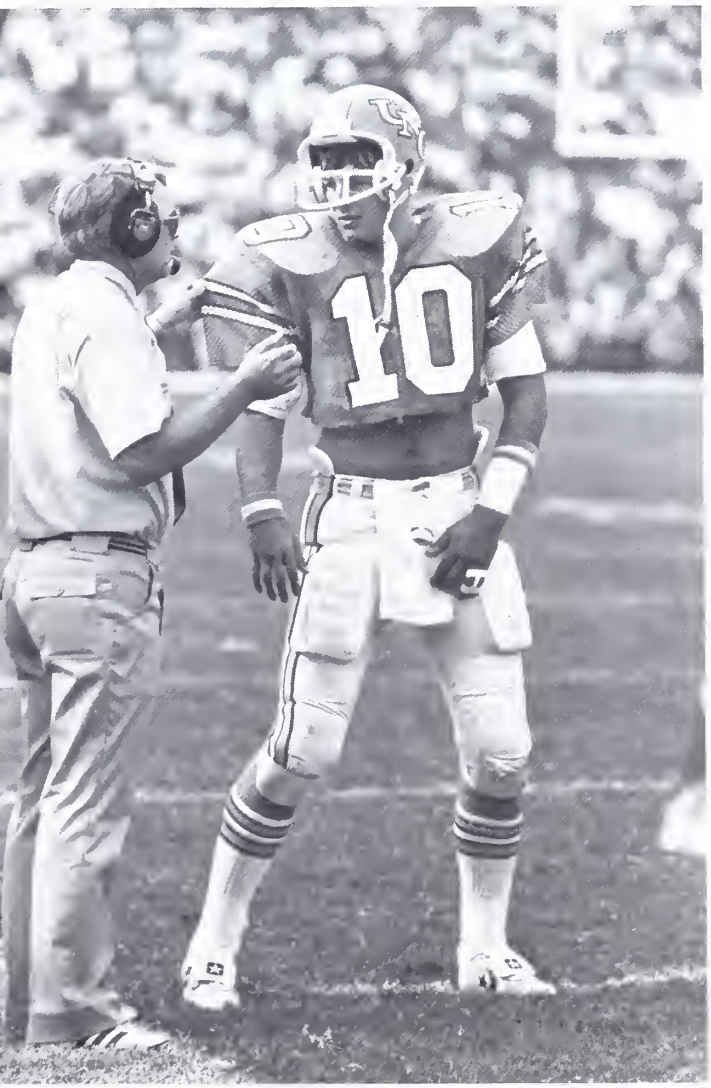
The first six years of his coaching career were spent as an assistant at Boardman High, Sandusky High and Warren Harding High, all in Ohio.

Crum accepted his first head coaching position in 1963 at Mentor High School in Mentor, Ohio. He compiled a six-year record of 50-9-1, winning three league championships. His record in his last four seasons there was 38-2.

He joined Bill Mallory's Miami staff as defensive backfield coach in 1969.

He was appointed defensive coordinator in 1970 and held that position for four years. While he was defensive coordinator his teams ranked third, fifth, sixth and first in the nation in total defense. The Redskins also topped the nation in rushing defense in 1973.

When Mallory left Miami to become head coach at Colorado after the 1973 season, Crum was named his successor. He won three Mid-American Conference championships in four years there and twice took teams to the Tangerine Bowl. The Redskins defeated Georgia, 21-10, in 1974 and South Carolina, 20-7, in 1975 in those post-season appearances.



Crum's Miami teams had records of 10-0-1 in 1974, 11-1 in 1975, 3-8 in 1976 and 10-1 in 1977.

In his only losing season at Miami, the Redskins lost nine of their 11 starting defensive players in their first two games. After an 0-6 start, however, Crum rallied his team to three wins in its final five games. The Redskins then capped that comeback by going 10-1 in 1977, coming from behind eight times to win.

Miami is known as the "cradle of coaches." Other former coaches at the Oxford school include Woody Hayes, Ara Parseghian, John Pont, Schembechler and Mallory.

Like all those men Crum was extremely successful at Miami. He was selected Ohio Coach of the Year in 1974 and 1975, MAC Coach of the Year in 1974 and District Five Coach of the Year in 1974 and 1977. His 1974 squad finished the season ranked 10th in the wire service polls, the highest rating of any team in MAC history.

Twice Crum was selected to serve as head coach in the Ohio Shrine Bowl Game. He has also been on coaching staffs in the All-America Bowl and the Coaches' All-America Game. He has served on several committees of the American Football Coaches Association and last spring was named to the AFCA's board of trustees.

While at Miami, Crum had been considered for other head coaching jobs. However, he had always asked that his name be withdrawn from consideration.

"I had been interviewed at other schools," he says, "but I always left those meetings with very mixed feelings and emotions. After I interviewed at Carolina, I had no such qualms. On the plane ride back to Ohio I told my wife, 'If they offer me the job, I'm going to accept.'

"The thing that influenced me more than anything else is the fact Carolina is an excellent academic institution as well as a home of great athletics."

In his spare time Crum enjoys fishing and the outdoors in general. Each summer his family takes a two-to-four week fishing trip to Canada. Their vacation spot is in an area just north of North Bay.

Crum also has a great interest in flying. He obtained his pilot's license in the summer of 1980.

Dick is married to the former Shirley Moncur of Delaware, Ohio. She is an Ohio University graduate with degrees in physical education and library science. They have three sons—Mike, 18, and twins, Jeff and Joel, 16.

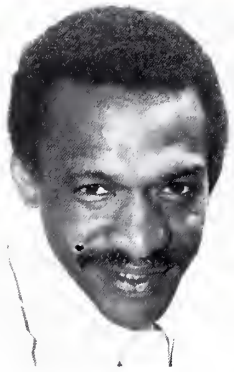
Assistant Coaches

Cleve Bryant (Quarterbacks)



Cleve Bryant, a star quarterback in his playing days, heads into his fourth season as coach of the Carolina quarterbacks.

A 1970 graduate of Ohio University, Bryant guided the Bobcats to back-to-back Mid-American Conference championships in 1967 and 1968. He was selected the MAC's Offensive Player of the Year in 1968.

After graduation Bryant was drafted by the Denver Broncos of the National Football League. He then spent five years in business before joining Dick Crum's Miami staff in 1977. He came to Carolina with Crum the following year.

Under Bryant's guidance, Matt Kupec broke every school single-season passing record in 1979 and became the first Tar Heel player to lead the Atlantic Coast Conference in passing. Carolina's quarterback last fall, Rod Elkins, tied for the ACC passing lead.

A native of Canton, Ohio, Bryant was inducted into the Ohio University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1975.

Bryant and his wife, Jean, have two sons, Rodney and Kyle.

Mel Foels (Outside Linebackers)

Heading into his second season on the Tar Heel staff is Mel Foels, coach of the Carolina outside linebackers.

Foels, a native of Toledo, Ohio, is a graduate of Bowling Green where he was an all-conference guard in 1964. An honorable mention academic All-America, Foels received his B.S. in biology and physical education in 1965 and earned his master's in physical education from Bowling Green in 1966.

Mel was head football and wrestling coach at Iowa Wesleyan from 1966 to 1973 and was three times named conference coach of the year. He served as an assistant coach at Iowa in 1973 and at Eastern Kentucky from 1974 to 1976 before joining the Tulsa staff in 1977.

Foels coached the Golden Hurricanes' linebackers for three years and also served as defensive coordinator in 1979. He joined the Carolina staff prior to last season. His star player last fall, Lawrence Taylor, was the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year and the second player chosen in the NFL draft.

Mel and his wife, Dawn, have two daughters, Tracie Lyn and Michelle Denise.

Jack Himebauch (Receivers)

Jack Himebauch, who has worked under Dick Crum for eight years, will again coach Carolina's receivers this season.

A native of Rocky River, Ohio, Himebauch was a star receiver in his own playing days at Miami University. He earned three letters as a tight end under John Pont and Bo Schembechler. He led the Redskins in receptions in both 1963 and 1964. Himebauch had a career total of 43 catches for 614 yards and six touchdowns.

After graduating in 1965, Himebauch was an assistant coach for Crum at Mentor High School for four years. He then spent six seasons as head coach at Darien High School in Connecticut.

Himebauch was an assistant at Fordham University in 1976 before returning to Miami and Crum's staff there in 1977. He coached the tight ends and offensive tackles for the Redskins. He worked with the defensive line the following year at Carolina before shifting back to the offense two season ago.

Himebauch also directs Crum's summer football camp for youngsters.

Jack and his wife, Cheryl, have three sons—Chris, Curt and Jonathan.

Denny Marcin (Defensive Coordinator and Linebackers)

Denny Marcin is beginning his fourth year as defensive coordinator at Carolina.

In addition to running the entire defense, Marcin also works specifically with the Tar Heel linebackers. A pair of Marcin's players, Buddy Curry and Darrell Nicholson, have been the leading vote-getters at linebacker on the All-ACC team for the last two years.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Marcin was a two-way guard at Miami University. He received all-conference honorable mention his senior year.

After graduating in 1964, he served as an assistant football coach at Lakewood St. Edward High School for eight years. He then was head coach there for two seasons and had an overall record of 17-2-1. He also was baseball coach for eight years.

Marcin returned to Miami in 1974 to coach the offensive guards and centers. He was named the Redskins' defensive coordinator in 1977 and assumed that same position when he joined Dick Crum at Carolina three years ago.

In addition to football, Marcin also enjoys wrestling and has officiated on the high school, college and professional level.

He and his wife, Betsy, have four children—Jeff, Denny, Melinda and Susie.

Larry Marmie (Defensive Backs)

Larry Marmie will again coach the Tar Heel secondary this season.

A native of Barnesville, Ohio, Marmie has 13 years of college coaching experience. He came to Carolina in March, 1979 from the University of Tulsa where he had been defensive coordinator for two seasons.

Tulsa, which had gone 3-8 in 1977, improved its record to 9-2 in 1978 and Marmie's defense was a major reason for that. Two of his players were second-team Associated Press All-Americas that season. In his two years at Carolina, Marmie has produced a pair of All-Atlantic Coast Conference players, Ricky Barden and Steve Streater.

In his own playing days Marmie was a quarterback at Eastern Kentucky from 1962 to 1965. As a senior he was a squad co-captain and also the team's most valuable player.

He began his coaching career in 1966 as head coach at Berea High School in Kentucky. He spent two seasons there. He then was an assistant coach at Morehead State for three seasons and an assistant at Eastern Kentucky for four years before joining the Tulsa staff.

Marmie and his wife, Linda, have three children—Vicki, Cozy and Larry, Jr.

John Matsko (Offensive Coordinator and Offensive Line)

The man who coordinates the Carolina offense is John Matsko, who has learned his trade from two of the finest coaches in college football.

Matsko played and coached for Don James at Kent State and is beginning his seventh year as an assistant to Dick Crum. James, of course, has taken the University of Washington to the Rose Bowl and Crum is one of the nation's most successful coaches.

A native of Mentor, Ohio, Matsko played for Crum in high school. He then attended Kent State and was the starting fullback for the Golden Flashes in 1972 when they won the Mid-American Conference championship and went to the Tangerine Bowl. He then coached there for one season as a student assistant.

Matsko then spent two seasons as a graduate assistant under Crum at Miami University. He coached at Danbury High for one year, compiling a 6-3 record and winning the Mid-Ohio Conference championship. Matsko returned to Miami in 1977 and came with Crum to Carolina in 1978.

In addition to being offensive coordinator, Matsko also will coach the Tar Heel offensive line. Two of his players, guard Ron Wooten and center Rick Donnalley, earned All-America honors last year.

John and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Marie and Elizabeth, and a son, John.

Chuck Priefer (Defensive Line)

Chuck Priefer is beginning his third season as coach of the Tar Heel defensive tackles and nose guards.

A 1963 graduate of John Carroll University, Priefer coached the defensive secondary in 1978, his first season in Chapel Hill. He was moved to the defensive front when Larry Marmie joined the staff after the 1978 season. Priefer had coached the defensive line at Miami University in 1977 when the Redskins were 10-1.

One of Priefer's players, tackle Donnell Thompson, was a first-round selection in the NFL draft last spring. Another, tackle Harry Stanback, was a sixth-round selection.

Priefer, a native of Parma, Ohio, started his coaching career as an assistant in football, basketball and baseball at Padua Franciscan High School in 1963. He became head baseball coach in 1965 and assistant athletic director in 1966. His eight-year baseball record was 151-59.

He served as head football coach from 1972 to 1976, compiling a 34-15 record. He then joined Dick Crum's staff at Miami and came with him to Carolina in 1978.

Priefer enjoys good movies, tennis and poker.

He and his wife, Sheila, have four children—Mike, Teri, Jenny and Megan.

Randy Walker (Offensive Backs)

Randy Walker, who played for Dick Crum at Miami University, is beginning his sixth year as one of Crum's assistant coaches.

A 1976 Miami graduate, Walker played on Redskin teams which compiled a 32-1-1 record. His teams won three straight Mid-American Conference championships and three consecutive Tangerine Bowl titles.

Randy finished his playing career as the sixth-leading rusher in Miami history with 1,757 yards. He was selected the team's most valuable player in his senior year after playing tailback, fullback and wingback at different times during the season.

A native of Troy, Ohio, Walker was drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals after graduation. He worked at Miami as a graduate assistant in 1976 and became a full-time staff member in 1977 as the Redskins went 10-1. He joined Dick Crum at Carolina in January, 1978.

Two of Walker's players, Amos Lawrence and Kelvin Bryant, each gained over 1,000 yards rushing last season and both won All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors.

Walker and his wife, Tammy, have a special interest in music. They have a daughter, Abbey.

Charlie Carr (Assistant Athletic Director for Recruiting)

Charlie Carr, who has excelled as both a player and a coach at Carolina, is now assistant athletic director for recruiting at the University.

Carr coordinates all of Carolina's football recruiting and is also available to assist coaches in other sports if needed. However, the great majority of his time is spent on football.

A native of Virginia Beach, Va., Carr was a three-sport star at Princess Anne High School. He then came to Carolina where he was a standout in football and baseball.

Carr was a star end on Tar Heel teams in 1965, 1966 and 1967. He set a school and Atlantic Coast Conference record in 1966 by catching 16 passes in one game against the Air Force Academy. He had 52 receptions that year, tying the school single-season record.

In his senior year Carr led the ACC in batting with a .398 average. He was an all-conference selection as an outfielder.

After graduation, Carr spent two years at Carolina as a graduate assistant and five years as a full-time coach. He then was offensive line coach at Rice University for two seasons. He returned to Chapel Hill in 1978 to coach the Tar Heel tight ends and offensive tackles and then took charge of the Carolina recruiting the following year.

Charlie is married to the former Dee Harrington of Lumberton, N.C.

Paul Hoolahan (Assistant AD for Academics and Fitness)

As assistant athletic director for academics and fitness, Paul Hoolahan oversees the physical and academic development of all Tar Heel athletes.

Hoolahan's major responsibilities are coordinating an academic counseling service for student-athletes and supervising the football team's strength development program.

Paul was an All-Atlantic Coast Conference tackle here in 1970. He led an offensive line that took Carolina to the Peach Bowl and helped Don McCauley set an NCAA single-season rushing record.

An outstanding student, Hoolahan received a B.A. in English at Carolina and his M.A. in psychology from Columbia University.

Before returning to Chapel Hill in 1976, Hoolahan had been working as the supervisor of the Aquatics Division of Nassau County Recreation and Parks on Long Island. Simultaneously, he had served as football coach and director of physical development at St. Frances Preparatory School.

Hoolahan is currently serving his second consecutive term as executive director of the 4,000-member National Strength Coaches Association. Paul is a bachelor.

Charles Waddell (Athletic Fitness Director)

Charles Waddell, one of Carolina's greatest all-around athletes, is in his second year as the University's athletic fitness director.

A 1975 Carolina graduate, Waddell lettered in three sports—football, basketball and track—during his playing days. He had his greatest success on the football field where he was an All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection as a tight end in 1973 and an All-America in 1974. He still holds the school record of three touchdown catches in a single game.

Following graduation he was selected by the San Diego Chargers in the NFL draft. He went to Seattle in the 1976 expansion draft and then spent two seasons at Tampa Bay. His playing career was cut short by a knee injury.

Waddell joined the Tar Heel staff in 1979. In that first year he assisted Paul Hoolahan with the Carolina fitness program and the school's academic counseling service. Although his title changed last season, he still has many of those same duties.

Charles is a native of Southern Pines, N.C. He and his wife, Sandra, have a daughter, Christa.

John Lacey (Head Trainer)

John Lacey, one of the most honored men in his field, heads an outstanding staff of athletic trainers at Carolina.

Lacey, beginning his 26th year in Chapel Hill, devotes all his attention to the Tar Heel football team. He has worked with 12 bowl teams, nine of them at Carolina.

One of his greatest honors came in 1972 when he was named head trainer for the United States delegation to the Olympic Games in Munich. He had served as trainer of the U.S. basketball team in the 1964 Games at Tokyo.

In 1977 he was named to the athletic trainers' section of the Citizen Savings (Helms) Hall of Fame.

A native of Wallingford, Conn., Lacey studied at the Yale University Department of Physical Therapy and at the Tilton School in Tilton, N.H. He came to Carolina from Maryland when the late Jim Tatum was named head football coach here in 1956. While at Maryland, he had served teams which won national championships in football and lacrosse.

He was also trainer of the 1957 Carolina basketball team which won the NCAA title. His background includes stints with three professional football teams—the Chicago Rockets, New York Yankees and Baltmore Colts.

Lacey is married to the former Barbara Koch of Wallingford.

Rick Brewer (Sports Information Director)

Rick Brewer is beginning his 14th year in the Carolina Sports Information Office and his seventh as its director.

A native of Winston-Salem, N.C., Brewer is a 1971 Carolina graduate with a B.A. in journalism.

He served as a student assistant in the sports information office for three years and was named the school's first assistant SID upon graduation. He held that position for four years and then was named sports information director in 1975.

In his six years as SID, Brewer has won awards from CoSIDA (College Sports Information Directors of America) for his football brochure, football game program, basketball brochure, basketball game program, tennis brochure, golf brochure and a recruiting brochure for women.

He is a member of CoSIDA, the Football Writers Association of America, the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and the Atlantic Coast Sports Writers Association.

Brewer is a bachelor.

Dave Lohse (Assistant Sports Information Director)

Dave Lohse is beginning his third year as assistant sports information director at Carolina.

Lohse is a 1977 graduate of Purdue University where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He worked in the Boilermaker Sports Information Office for three years as a student assistant.

Lohse then spent two years as a graduate assistant in the Carolina Sports Information Office before being named assistant SID in August, 1979. Although his major responsibilities at Carolina involve non-revenue sports, Dave also assists with the publicizing of Carolina's football team.

A native of Griffith, Ind., Lohse is a member of CoSIDA (College Sports Information Directors of America), the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and the Atlantic Coast Sports Writers Association.

Lohse is a bachelor.

Kenan Stadium

Nestled among the tall pine trees near the center of the Carolina campus is Kenan Stadium, home of the Tar Heels.

It is here in this beautiful natural valley that Carolina teams have played their games for 53 years. This is where the action is—the color, the motion and the pageantry of Carolina football.

Kenan Stadium is generally referred to as one of the most beautiful football arenas in the country. Considering its majestic setting, some say it is THE most beautiful. Little can be done to enhance its natural beauty. In fact, most of the work on the stadium has been directed toward keeping up the natural setting.

William Rand Kenan, Jr. deserves the credit for making the stadium a part of the University. He was born in North Carolina in 1873 and was an 1894 Carolina graduate. The late Mr. Kenan, who died in 1966, was an international industrialist. He discovered carbide and made monumental progress in the field of chemistry.

The stadium was built as a memorial to his parents, William R. Kenan and Mary Hargrave Kenan. Construction began in November, 1926 and was completed in August of the following year. Carolina defeated Davidson, 27-0, in the first game played there, November 12, 1927.

Carolina's all-time record in Kenan is 160-99-14.

As originally built, the stadium seated 24,000. However, in later years Mr. Kenan added portable stands and then an upper deck to the permanent stands, bringing capacity to 48,000. Work was done in the stadium three years ago to increase that to 49,500.

After the 1976 season Kenan Fieldhouse underwent a massive renovation. The building was expanded to 30,000 square feet of dressing rooms, coaches' offices, weight-training quarters, lounges, meeting rooms and other facilities.

Besides giving the stadium to the University, Mr. Kenan also sponsored and financed the famous Kenan Professorships. He was awarded the honorary degree of LL.D. by his alma mater in 1944.

Every game in the stadium was a sellout last year. In fact, every ticket was sold before the season even began.

Six games will be played in Kenan Stadium this fall. The Tar Heels will play host to East Carolina, Miami of Ohio, Boston College, Wake Forest, South Carolina and Clemson.

For these games, students, faculty, alumni and fans will converge on the stadium. They will enjoy football at its finest in a stadium that is magnificent.

This is Kenan Stadium and this is where the action is.

1980 Bluebonnet Bowl

Amos Lawrence and Kelvin Bryant ran for first half touchdowns and North Carolina's defense shut down Texas in the second half as the Tar Heels scored a 16-7 victory over the Longhorns in the 1980 Bluebonnet Bowl.

Lawrence ran 59 yards for a first period touchdown and Bryant scored on a one-yard plunge in the second quarter as Carolina built up a 13-7 lead. That proved to be more than enough as the Tar Heel defense dominated the Longhorns after intermission.

Carolina opened the scoring on its first possession. Taking the ball on their own 20 the Tar Heels drove to the UNC 41 on two short runs by Lawrence and a 16-yard pass from Rod Elkins to Mike Chatham. From there Lawrence went straight up the middle, cut back to the right sideline behind a Shelton Robinson block and went 59 yards for the touchdown. A two-point conversion failed.

Texas came back to take a 7-6 lead in the second quarter. The Longhorns went 70 yards in seven plays with Mike Luck scoring from the one and John Goodson adding the PAT. The big play in the drive was a 42-yard reverse by Herkie Walls.

The Tar Heels stalled on their next drive, but Steve Streater backed Texas to its own 12-yard line with a Bluebonnet Bowl-record punt of 63 yards. When Rick McIvor tried to go to the air from there on first down, Streater intercepted the pass and returned it 12 yards to the Longhorn 33.

On first down the Tar Heels ran their own reverse with Mark Smith going 31 yards to the Texas two. Lawrence carried to the one and then Bryant scored from there. Jeff Hayes' extra point gave Carolina a 13-7 lead.

Texas never crossed midfield again. Lawrence Taylor, Harry Stanback, Calvin Daniels, Lee Shaffer, Donnell Thompson and Darrell Nicholson all made big plays as the Tar Heel defense controlled the second half. The Longhorns managed just two first downs and were held to minus eight yards rushing and only 36 yards in total offense in the final two quarters.

Meanwhile, Carolina's offense continued to move the ball. Three second-half drives were stalled by illegal procedure penalties and another ended up on the Texas one-yard line. The Tar Heels did add a 31-yard field goal by Hayes in the third period.

Lawrence finished the game with 104 yards rushing on 18 carries and was named the outstanding offensive performer. Bryant added 82 yards on 15 carries and was second in the MVP voting.

Elkins completed 11 of 18 passes for 121 yards. Chatham and Bryant each had four catches.

Streater, who recovered a fumble in addition to his interception, was selected the game's top defensive player. Also receiving votes were Taylor, Shaffer, Stanback and Thompson.

Rod Elkins fires a pass over the middle to Walter Sturdivant.

The Outlook

East Carolina's Pirates will be looking to reverse last season's disappointing 4-7 record this fall. Second-year coach Ed Emory boasts 47 returning lettermen, including every member of the offensive line which showed great improvement during the spring. Talented sophomore Earnest Byner and bruising fullback Roy Wiley are expected to step from the shadows of departed runners Theodore Sutton, Anthony Collins and Mike Hawkins. Emory has two experienced quarterbacks with the return of injured Carlton Nelson and his backup, Greg Stewart. The defense will be vintage ECU with the starters averaging 4.75 speed.

The Outlook

Miami will run a new offense, the I-formation, as the Redskins head into their fourth season under Tom Reed. Miami will throw the football more than in the past. Jon Macke and Mark Kelly are the top quarterback candidates. The Redskins have two excellent receivers in Don Treadwell (22.0 yards per catch last year) and Keith Dummitt (25.8 per catch). The offense also features a fine tailback in Greg Jones, who gained 952 yards last year in just nine games. The defense will be experienced. However, replacements must be found for middle guard John McCafferty and linebacker Kent McCormick.

The Outlook

Jack Bicknell takes over the head coaching job at Boston College this year and he inherits a veteran squad coming off a winning season (7-4). There are 41 lettermen returning from the team that scored wins over Stanford, Yale, Syracuse and Army, among others, a year ago. Only 12 players have been lost to graduation. With seven returning starters, the defense should again be a strong one. That unit is anchored by linebacker Jim Budness and safety Rich Dyer, the team co-captains. Offensively, the Eagles have an explosive backfield, featuring runningback Shelby Gamble, BC's 10th all-time leading rusher after just two seasons. This team will be facing the most challenging schedule in BC's long football history.

The Outlook

Georgia Tech will be a better team this fall than in 1980, although the final record may not be indicative of the progress made. Tech faces the same schedule this fall that it did last season and that includes seven teams that went to bowl games. Tech will be an experienced team with nine offensive and seven defensive starters returning. However, help must be found quickly at wide receiver, on the defensive line and in the secondary. The Yellow Jackets have to improve their 99.5 yards per game rushing average of last fall. Still, Tech expects to throw the ball more this season with the return of record-setting quarterback Mike Kelley. The defense will be better if it it can avoid the injuries suffered in 1980.

The Outlook

In his first year as Wake Forest head coach, Al Groh will be working with "as large an influence of underclassmen as I've ever been associated with." Offensively, the young Deacons will again be pass-oriented with an outstanding receiver corp led by All-America candidate Kenny Duckett. Sophomore Gary Schoefield and senior David Webber, who both have the talent and intelligence to be excellent players, are the top quarterback candidates. The Deacon defense will be led by end Eddie Yarnell and linebacker Joel Triplett. The secondary, a weakness last season, has been strengthened by position changes.

The Outlook

Coach Monte Kiffin, who is fielding his second edition of the Wolfpack, tags defense as his team's strong suit for this fall. A pair of All-America candidates, linebacker Robert Abraham and cornerback Perry Williams, head the list of nine returning defensive starters. While defense may supply the foundation, the offense could prove formidable if Kiffin can solve a couple of problems, namely at tight end and the runningback slots. A talented corp of receivers, led by Mike Quick and Ken Jenkins, should provide the Wolfpack with a versatile passing game. The secondary shapes up as the team's most solid area.

The Outlook

South Carolina will rely on a solid defense and a more versatile offense this fall than the one which took the Gamecocks to an 8-4 record last year. South Carolina will miss Heisman Trophy-winning tailback George Rogers who ran for 1791 yards last season. In addition, several other key offensive performers are also gone. The Gamecocks will thus look to a more wide open attack in 1981. The defense, led by All-America candidate Andrew Provence at tackle and middle guard Emanual Weaver, will be stronger this year. Another key defender is Robert Perlotte, a four-year starter at free safety.

The Outlook

With 42 of last year's top 62 players returning, Maryland will be shooting for its eighth bowl appearance in nine years. Heading the list of returnees is tailback Charlie Wysocki, who led the ACC in rushing for the second straight year with 1,359 yards last fall. Other top players on offense should be guards David Pacella and Brian Riendeau, tackle Bob Gioia, tight end John Tice, fullback Jeff Rodenberger and wingback Mike Lewis. Bob Milkovich, Brent Dewitz and redshirt Norman Esiason will battle for the quarterback job. The defense, led by linebacker Joe Wilkins, should again be solid. Maryland's biggest problem may be the kicking game since punter/place-kicker Dale Castro has graduated.

The Outlook

The 1981 season looks promising for Clemson as the Tigers will be much improved in all areas. Clemson returns all 11 starters on offense. That unit features a deep offensive line. Homer Jordan is back at quarterback after running and passing for 1,683 yards last fall. His favorite aerial target is wide receiver Perry Tuttle, who led the ACC with 53 catches last year. However, Coach Danny Ford feels defense will again be his team's strong point. Linebacker Jeff Davis heads up that unit. He was in on 160 tackles a year ago. Clemson was hurt by inexperience, injuries and bad breaks in 1980. Inexperience is no longer a problem. If the Tigers can avoid a lot of injuries and costly mistakes, they should be in the ACC title chase.

The Outlook

Virginia returns five starters on offense and seven on defense to face one of the toughest schedules in UVa history. Despite the graduation of Tommy Vigorito, the school's all-time leading rusher, the Cavaliers will be strong at the skill positions. A big key will be the development of the offensive interior where tackle Dave Sullivan is the only returning starter. Todd Kirtley, third in career passing at UVa, will have an experienced corp of receivers and tailback Quentin Walker is an All-ACC candidate. Defensively, the Cavs have great team speed and a pair of All-America candidates, linebacker Stu Anderson and safety Pat Chester, will anchor a new 4-3 scheme.

The Outlook

Optimism is running high in the Duke football camp despite a 2-9 record in 1980. The reason for that optimism is the return of 18 starters off last year's squad, including quarterback Ben Bennett, the Atlantic Coast Conference Rookie of the Year. Bennet will lead a rejuvenated offense that produced over 2,500 yards passing in 1980. Returning with Bennett is an excellent group of receivers, including three-year letterman Cedric Jones. Defensively, the Blue Devils will rely on an experienced defensive front and the strong linebacking play of senior Jimmy Tyson and junior Emmett Tilley. Placekicker Scott McKinney returns for his final season and should set several school kick-scoring records.

The Educational Foundation

One of the most important organizations in the Carolina Athletic Department is the University's Educational Foundation.

It is the Educational Foundation which makes possible all athletic scholarships awarded by Carolina.

As the Tar Heels' sports program has grown through the years, the Foundation has done likewise. It currently has over 4,500 members who finance a scholarship program that costs $1,000,000 a year.

"Since its inauguration in 1938, the Foundation has provided scholarships, either partial or full, for over 3,000 student-athletes," says Ernie Williamson, the Foundation's executive vice-president.

Williamson feels the overall bonus of being a Foundation member is helping a worthy young student obtain a college education. He says the high caliber young athlete who is awarded a scholarship is a great representative of the University.

Any donation to the Foundation is welcome. However, membership in the Rams Club is restricted to those who contribute $150 or more.

Carolina was one of the first schools in the nation to set up an endowment program for athletics. This program was started in 1968 and has already surpassed the $6,000,000 mark.

The endowment program consists of $50,000 endowed scholarships, life memberships of $10,000 and $20,000, wills and bequests and a new dimension—a pooled income fund. Under the pooled income plan, a member gives a principal sum to the Foundation and then receives the interest off that during the remainder of his life.

A special room on the south wing of Kenan Fieldhouse serves as a meeting place for Rams and their families. This area is open two hours before football games and provides a lounge and picnic area for those who come early.

The Foundation operates on a dignified and realistic plane in compliance with all of the regulations of the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Atlantic Coast Conference.

The Foundation administrative staff was enlarged last year with Moyer Smith, John Cherry and Bill Lam taking new responsibilities. Along with Williamson, Mary Baggett, Kaye Koenig and Jean Gunter, they have made the Foundation better able to serve its members.

"We couldn't have the type program we do without the Educational Foundation membership," says Athletic Director John Swofford. "I think the staff additions we made last year will enable us to do a better job for our members."

Ernie Williamson

The man who stands at the helm of the Educational Foundation is popular Ernie Williamson, the executive vice-president.

The former star Carolina tackle is one of the most active individuals on the Tar Heel sports scene. He is constantly on the go—talking with Foundation members, speaking to prospective members or avidly following all of Carolina's athletic teams.

Williamson is a Carolina graduate with A.B. and M.A. degrees. The native of Crewe, Va. played one season of football here under Carl Snavely and was regarded as an outstanding tackle.

He was lured away to professional football and played with New York and Washington before a knee injury ended his career.

Williamson returned to Chapel Hill to finish work on his degrees and then went to the University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn. He was an assistant coach there for two years and head coach for three seasons.

He returned to Carolina in 1957 to accept his present position. At one time he also served as a recruiter for the football program.

Williamson is currently serving his third term as president of the National Association of Athletic Fund-Raisers.

Ernie is married to the former Elva Smith of Lawrenceville, Va. They have a son, Wayne, and a daughter, Carole.

Carolina's 1,000-yard Rushers

Carolina has had ten 1,000-yard rushers in the last eight years. That's the most of any school in the country in that period.

Sammy Johnson reached the magic figure in 1973. Mike Voight and James Betterson in 1974, Voight again in 1975 and 1976, Amos Lawrence in 1977, 1978, 1979 and 1980 and Kelvin Bryant in 1980.

Carolina has had 12 1,000-yard rushers in its football history. The only school with more is Southern California with 13.

Twice, 1974 and 1980, Carolina has had two players on the same team each hit 1,000 yards. That has happened only nine other times in collegiate history. Only at Carolina have the players shared the same position, Voight and Betterson in '74 and Lawrence and Bryant in '80.

Lawrence and Tony Dorsett are the only major college players to rush for 1,000 yards four times. Lawrence's career total of 4,391 yards is a school record and the ninth highest figure in NCAA history.

Don McCauley set the Tar Heels' all-time single-season rushing record in 1970. He ran for 1,720 yards that year, breaking O.J. Simpson's NCAA single-season record.

James Betterson
1,082 yards in 1974

Kelvin Bryant
1,039 yards in 1980

Sammy Johnson
1,006 yards in 1973

Amos Lawrence
1,211 yards in 1977
1,043 yards in 1978
1,019 yards in 1979
1,118 yards in 1980

Don McCauley
1,092 yards in 1969
1,720 yards in 1970

Mike Voight
1,033 yards in 1974
1,250 yards in 1975
1,407 yards in 1976

Carolina's Bowl History

North Carolina has played in 12 post-season bowl games, including eight in the last 11 years.

No other Atlantic Coast Conference team has been to as many bowls in this recent stretch as Carolina. In fact, the only teams in America which have played in more bowls in this period are Alabama, Nebraska, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Penn State, Southern California and Texas.

Carolina's post-season trips have been to the Sugar Bowl in 1947 and 1949, the Cotton Bowl in 1950, the Peach Bowl in 1970 and 1976, the Sun Bowl in 1972 and 1974, the Liberty Bowl in 1977, the Bluebonnet Bowl in 1980 and the Gator Bowl in 1963, 1971 and 1979.

The Tar Heels' bowl history started in the late Forties when Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice was running wild from the single wing. Carolina went to bowl games three times during the Justice Era, but lost all three.

Perhaps the most famous of those games was the 1947 Sugar Bowl which matched Carolina against Georgia. The game produced one of the most controversial plays in bowl history. Carolina was leading 7-0 in the third period when Bulldog defensive end Joe Tereshinski intercepted a Tar Heel pass. He then flipped a lateral to Dick McPhee who raced to the Carolina 14.

The Tar Heels argued the lateral was a forward one and the play should have been called back. However, the officials ruled differently. Georgia went on to score and eventually won the game, 20-10.

Carolina returned to the Sugar Bowl two years later and lost to Oklahoma, 14-6. Justice had a great day for the Tar Heels, clicking off runs of 10, 13, 25, 11 and 14 yards. He punted four times for 65, 65, 57 and 53 yards.

Justice had another great day in the 1950 Cotton Bowl, but Carolina lost to Rice, 27-14.

The Tar Heels' next bowl appearance came in the 1963 Gator Bowl where Carolina walloped the Air Force, 35-0. Ken Willard was the big star that day. He ran for 94 yards on 18 carries and scored the first touchdown which keyed the runaway victory.

In the 1970 Peach Bowl the Tar Heels dropped a wild 48-26 decision to unbeaten Arizona State. All-America tailback Don McCauley had 143 yards rushing and three touchdowns for Carolina. But a second-half snowstorm and an injury to quarterback Paul Miller helped the Sun Devils race to victory.

The 1971 Gator Bowl produced a bowl first—brothers opposing each other as coaches in bowl competition. It matched Vince Dooley of Georgia against Bill of Carolina. The game was a great defensive struggle in which the Bulldogs came from behind to win, 7-3.

Carolina capped an 11-1 season in the 1972 Sun Bowl by defeating Texas Tech, 32-28. Quarterback Nick Vidnovic was the big star, completing 14 of 26 passes for 215 yards. He fired a 62-yard scoring strike to Ted Leverenz to help the Tar Heels to a 24-21 halftime lead.

Tech came back to go ahead, 28-24, but Vidnovic hit Leverenz with a 13-yard TD pass with just a minute to play to bring Carolina back. The Tar Heels then added two more points when Ronnie Robinson dropped Raider quarterback Joe Barnes for a safety.

Mike Voight and James Betterson had big days rushing in the 1974 Sun Bowl, but Mississippi State won another thriller, 26-24. The Tar Heels put on a desperation drive in the game's closing moments, but were stopped on a fourth-and-one at their own 48-yard line.

Playing without the injured Voight, Carolina lost to Kentucky, 21-0, in the 1976 Peach Bowl. The Tar Heels had trouble all day with a tough Wildcat defense.

Carolina dropped a heartbreaking 21-17 decision to Nebraska in the 1977 Liberty Bowl. Sparked by quarterback Matt Kupec, the Tar Heels held a 17-7 lead going into the fourth period. However, the Cornhuskers rallied behind reserve quarterback Randy Garcia to score their come-from-behind victory.

Kupec and Amos Lawrence were the big stars in Carolina's 17-15 win over Michigan in the 1979 Gator Bowl. Kupec directed a 97-yard touchdown drive in the third quarter which put the Tar Heels ahead to stay (14-9). Jeff Hayes later added a 32-yard field goal. Michigan scored with 1:28 left to cut the lead to two, but a two-point pass failed.

Kupec completed 18 of 28 passes, while Lawrence ran for 118 yards. They were named co-MVPs.

Lawrence again was the big star in Carolina's 16-7 win over Texas in last year's Bluebonnet Bowl. He rushed for 104 yards and had a 59-yard touchdown run. Carolina's other scoring came on a short plunge by Kelvin Bryant and a field goal by Hayes. A key factor in this game was the Carolina defense which limited the Longhorns to just two first downs and only 36 yards of total offense in the second half.
